Ike Set To Make Support Plea

Zhukov Airs Warning To 'Aggressor'

Vast Throng Hears May Day Address, Photos Forbidden

LONDON (U)—Soviet Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov assured a vast May Day gathering in Moscow's Red Square today that Russian military forces have "all the modern means of combat necessary to rout any aggressor."

Zhukov also accused the Western powers of rejecting Soviet peace bids and charged the United States with bringing war nearer by deciding "to station atomic units on territories of other countries."

But much of his speech, broadcast by Moscow radio, was filled with protestations of the Kremlin's peaceful desires and pleas for peaceful coexistence.

As usual, the Kremlin paraded some of its military might through the square while jet fighters and bombers zoomed overhead.

Parade Pictures Banned
Foreigners were banned from taking pictures of the parade, leading to speculation in Moscow that the Soviets might unveil something new in military weapons. The broadcast did not indicate whether this was done.

In a later broadcast, however, Andrei Tupolev, leading Russian plane designer, said Russia will soon start mass producing a four-jet airliner capable of carrying 100 passengers.

He added that he and his colleagues were working on a four-engine turbo-prop to carry 170 passengers. Tupolev designed Russia's twin-jet TU104 which caused a stir in the West when it brought Premier Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev to Britain last year.

The broadcast said leaders of the Soviet Communist party and government reviewed the parade from atop the Lenin-Stalin mausoleum in the square but did not give the names of those present.

In his speech, Zhukov said: "Following Lenin's principles of peaceful coexistence, the Soviet government is persistently pursuing a peaceful foreign policy and is doing its utmost to ease international tension. The Soviet Union is an ardent champion of peace and friendship among all peoples. We are against the policy of a cold war, against military blocs."

He added, however, that the Soviet people consider it their duty, "in reply to the aggressive intrigues of the imperialist circles, incessantly to increase the fighting capacity of their troops which form part of the (Communist bloc) armed forces set up in conformity with the Warsaw Treaty."

Blames U. S. Opposition
On relations with the West, Zhukov said:

"Our proposals for a reduction of the armed forces, for the suspension of the tests of nuclear weapons."

Judge In Florida Opens Golf Links To Negro Players

MIAMI, Fla. (U)—Federal Judge Emmet C. Choate has ordered the Miami Springs golf course opened to Negro players at all times, effective May 10.

The judge yesterday signed an order which holds that the present one-day-a-week use by Negroes is unconstitutional.

The course is owned by the city of Miami and is the only golf course this city operates.

The order was on a suit brought by four Negroes for full privileges of the course.

Arlene Dahl Goes To Court In Protest Over Pictures

NEW YORK (U)—Red-haired screen siren Arlene Dahl says promotion pictures for her latest movie are too revealing for a respectable actress like herself.

The shapely star made a demure appearance in State Supreme Court yesterday. She testified as trial opened in her multimillion-dollar damage suit against Columbia Pictures Corp.

Her handsome husband, actor Fernando Lamas, was a spectator.

Jordan Stand Causing U. S. 'No Anxiety'

WASHINGTON (U)—State Department officials professed today to be unworried by King Hussein's rebuff to President Eisenhower's Middle East program.

Hussein has accepted an American offer of 10 million dollars to help him strengthen his country's economy and finances and presumably also to assist in meeting the payroll for his army.

But he told a news conference at Amman yesterday that Jordan is not interested in the Eisenhower Doctrine. He said he had declined a visit from Eisenhower's special ambassador in the Middle East, James P. Richards.

Officials here said acceptance of the program was not particularly important because Hussein is in fact working along the same lines.

U. S. policy laid down in a resolution by Congress in March is aimed at opposing the spread of Communist influence in the Middle East and promoting stability there.

Officials said Hussein has cut out Communist propaganda in his country as much as possible, has put known Communists in jail and has refused to establish diplomatic relations with the Soviet.

Byrd Hopeful On Tax Slash

WASHINGTON (U)—Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today that if Congress would cut President Eisenhower's spending budget back to 1955 levels it could reduce taxes $6,355,000,000.

"It is possible we cannot reach the 1955 level in the coming year," he said in a speech prepared for the annual meeting of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, "but we can work toward that goal."

Calling Eisenhower's proposed $71,800,000,000 outlay for the fiscal year beginning July 1 "the most irresponsible budget submitted in my day," Byrd said Congress' goal should be a return to the $64,600,000,000 spent in the year beginning July 1, 1954.

McCarthy Still Listed In 'Serious' Condition

WASHINGTON (U)—Bethesda Naval Hospital said today Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) spent a fairly comfortable night but his condition continues to be serious.

McCarthy was admitted to the hospital last Sunday, suffering from what was diagnosed as acute hepatitis, an inflammation of the liver.

Woman's scantily clad body. The pictures were for the film "Wicked as They Come."

She is charging libel and invasion of privacy in the suit on grounds that the pictures are "obscene, degrading and offensive."

"Any decent, self-respecting woman would object to these composite pictures," the blue-eyed actress told Justice Henry Clay Greenberg. "The movie people shouldn't be allowed to go so far."

Showers Due On Weekend

BALTIMORE (U)—Five-day forecast: Fair except scattered showers over the weekend. Total amounts of rainfall expected to be light and generally less than one-half inch. Cooler Thursday and Friday followed by a warning trend over the weekend then turning cooler on Monday. Temperatures will average near normal.

Strike Called By Cleveland Utility Union

CLEVELAND (U)—The Utility Workers Union struck the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. at midnight. The company said it would try to maintain service to its 520,000 customers with supervisory personnel. The company provides electric power on the Lake Erie shore area, including Cleveland and 137 other communities.

The 2,600 members of the union's Local 270 walked out after a series of emergency meetings arranged by Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze failed to settle working of a job assignment clause in the contract.

The clause permits the company to transfer or reclassify employees if "necessary or desirable." The union demands deletion of "desirable." The company claims that would give the union a "veto" on a prerogative of management.

Church Group Hits Barriers

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (U)—Commissioners to the 97th General Assembly of Southern Presbyterians have condemned what they called violations of democratic freedoms.

Numerous indictments came yesterday on the final day of the five-day assembly in a lengthy report of the Standing Committee on Christian Relations.

Much of the report had to do with the racial issue. It dealt with "groups" whose purpose is to gain "their point by intimidation, reprisal and violence."

It mentioned the Ku Klux Klan and various "councils," although the "councils" were not identified.

Solons Protest Congress Delays

WASHINGTON (U)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) pledged his best efforts today to keep Congress in session until it acts on civil rights legislation and other important segments of President Eisenhower's program.

Knowland, Senate Republican leader, said that so far as he is concerned a proposal by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) for Senate meetings three days a week will hold only as long as a series of regular money bills are under consideration.

Democratic Leader Johnson announced yesterday he wants the Senate to meet Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays while it acts on a series of appropriations measures this month.

He said the Democratic Policy Committee backed his decision that the House will have to act first on Eisenhower's proposals for civil rights, school aid, immigration and natural gas legislation. He added there was "no

Rebuff Seen For Reds At NATO Meet

BONN, Germany (U)—Foreign ministers of the 15 Atlantic Alliance nations assembled here today for a three-day meeting, were expected to recommend intensive negotiations on Russia's latest disarmament proposals.

Initial Western reaction was generally cool to the Soviet proposals, announced last night by Moscow radio.

Part of the Soviet plan provided for limited acceptance of President Eisenhower's two-year-old "open skies" scheme for disarmament inspectors to photograph American and Russian territory from the air as a check against preparations for war.

Moscow radio said Soviet Delegate Valerian A. Zorin told the U. N. Disarmament subcommittee in London his government was ready to open about 2 1/2 million square miles of its territory in Europe and eastern Siberia to aerial inspection if the United States would open the skies over almost the same amount of territory in Alaska and the western United States.

Lorin coupled this with proposals for an immediate suspension of nuclear weapon tests and Russian-American-British renunciation of the use of nuclear weapons.

Witness Balks At Senate Quiz

WASHINGTON (U)—A retired government inspector refused today to tell investigating senators whether he accepted $12,533.90 of bribes while working for the Army Quartermaster Corps in New Jersey.

He invoked the Fifth Amendment, pleading the answers "might tend to incriminate me."

The witness, Altio Yadevia, had sworn last January 30 that "I never took a bribe." His turn about today drew a swift threat of prosecution on contempt of Congress charges.

Nixon Says Kremlin Bosses Know Armies Not Reliable

CHICAGO (U)—Vice President Nixon says that last year's uprisings in Poland and Hungary were just the beginning of an internal revolt that will ultimately sweep away the Communist empire.

"The leaders of the Kremlin know their armies are not reliable," Nixon said in a speech last night.

"They realize that unrest and dissension are barely hidden in their colleges and universities. They are aware of the grumblings and doubts in the ranks of the Communist party itself."

Texas Flood Toll Climbs, Rivers Drop

Families Removed From Danger Area, Oil Wells Closed

DALLAS (U)—The upper Sabine River, at its greatest height in history, went out of its banks around Gladewater but the threat of major floods on other Texas rivers eased slightly today.

Oil wells in the petroleum-rich Gladewater area stopped pumping because of high water. The river flowed out three-quarters of a mile on the southwest side of town. There were no residents in the immediate area.

Meanwhile, the drowning toll climbed to 13 in the 14 days of Texas floods. Latest victim reported was Earl Thomas, 27, a prison trustee who was sent out to "make tracks" for bloodhound training and drowned in a flooded ravine.

Families Evacuated
Absence of further damaging rains west of the Sabine helped relieve flood threats on the Colorado, Nueces, Guadalupe, Trinity and Brazos rivers.

But families still were being evacuated in some low areas, the floods crept over bottom land fields which were in the drought disaster area only a few weeks ago, and some persons still were isolated by high water.

Police Sgt. Melvin Farrar said in Gladewater, "The Texas Co. has shut down some 60 odd oil wells, and may close some more."

"The river is easing up out," he said. "Eleven families have been evacuated as a precaution, and there will be several more before it's all over with. If it keeps going, it will threaten the federal housing project, which has about 150 people living in it. People are storing stuff, and moving up town."

The main part of Gladewater is protected by levees.

One man isolated himself so he could remain to operate a water pump on the Trinity River at Trinity, Tex.

He was Jim Elliott, who has been marooned five days. For a time, food was delivered to him by boat. Then his suppliers left him the boat so he could flee if his little station goes under.

"It's pretty scary down here," he told one supply team. But he appeared happy about one thing: "I haven't had to shave," he said.

Many Roads Blocked
The State Highway Department listed more than 55 highways and feeder roads blocked by high water or washouts.

Federal Civil Defense chief Welcome W. Wilson called the floods "a disaster of great proportions."

Grand Jury To Get Oil Firms' Records

WASHINGTON (U)—Government antitrust lawyers have asked a federal court to forbid about 35 major oil companies from destroying records which may be needed in a grand jury probe of recent oil price increases.

The motion for an injunction, filed in Federal District Court in nearby Alexandria, Va., said possible litigation "may be frustrated and will be seriously impaired" by loss of pertinent documents.

Judge Albert V. Bryan has ordered a hearing on the motion tomorrow.

A Justice Department spokesman said the motion was based on the action of one company which destroyed some records. He did not name the firm, but about 35 companies were listed in the motion.

The department said many companies have a practice of destroying records they think are no longer needed. It added that the company which destroyed some records got rid of documents dealing with oil pricing in 1955.

These were destroyed under the firm's "file destruction program," the affidavit added, after Atty. Gen. Brownell announced last January that there would be an investigation of price increases which followed the Suez Canal closure.

Last week, Horace L. Flurry, the Justice Department lawyer who was handling the oil case, resigned after a disagreement with superiors over the investigation.

One point of disagreement concerned the subpoenaing of company records. He indicated he thought some documents would be destroyed by the time the department finally subpoenaed them.

Negro Pastor's Appeal Rejected

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (U)—The Alabama Court of Appeals has thrown out an appeal of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. from a conviction of violating an antiboycott law during the yearlong bus boycott by Negroes.

The court said yesterday a transcript of testimony in the Negro minister's trial in March 1956 wasn't filed within the appeal time and that no extension of time was asked. The court didn't go into the merits of the case.

New Jersey Newspaper Price Will Be Boosted

CAMDEN, N. J. (U.S.)—The Camden Courier-Post, an evening newspaper, announced today that its price will be increased from five to seven cents effective tomorrow.

The paper blamed the boost on higher costs, stating that newspaper had gone up 81 per cent and labor 54 per cent since October, 1946.

Nixon Says Kremlin Bosses Know Armies Not Reliable

CHICAGO (U)—Vice President Nixon spoke to a joint meeting of the American Jewish Committee and the Antidiscrimination League of B'nai B'rith.

Nixon said the "brave fighters of Hungary were subdued by overwhelming force" and that freedom in Poland "is strictly limited."

"But the fact that these uprisings occurred proves two important truths," he said. "They show that the desire for freedom is so deep in the heart of man that he will not let the tyranny of secret police nor the brainwashing of unending propaganda make men believe that slavery is freedom or that lies are truth."

GOP Leader Sees Radio, TV Appeals

Fight For Budget And His Program Will Be Pressed

WASHINGTON (U)—Republican congressional leaders advised President Eisenhower today to go to the people with an appeal for his budget and his foreign aid program.

Senator GOP Leader Knowland of California told reporters there was a general discussion, at the weekly White House session of key party lawmakers, of a presidential radio-television address to the nation.

He said it was the view of the congressional leaders generally that the President "should talk to the people."

No Time Fixed As Yet
"I think," Knowland said, "it would be very helpful on this issue and on other issues as they come along."

Nothing was worked out, he said, in the way of a possible time for Eisenhower to address the country.

Both the $4,400,000,000 foreign aid program and the $71,800,000,000 budget as a whole have been targets of a congressional economy drive.

Knowland himself has called for a three-billion-dollar whack at the budget.

House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts has taken a similar stand.

Knowland left the impression that in spite of his own stand on the budget matter he still favors taking the administration case to the people.

In addition to parting company with the administration on spending plans, Knowland has differed with Eisenhower on such questions as giving money to states and communities to help meet the schoolroom shortage.

But Knowland said the question of his stepping out as minority leader because of such differences didn't arise in today's huddle with Eisenhower.

"I intend to continue as leader," Knowland said.

It wasn't entirely clear whether the idea of a presidential appeal to the public originated with Eisenhower's congressional lieutenants or with the President himself.

Might Clear Up Jam
Knowland said it grew out of "a general discussion that came up on keeping the country informed of developments."

In a general review of the legislative calendar, Knowland told newsmen the Senate Republican leadership will go along, "on an experimental basis," with the Democratic plan to cut down on Senate sessions. He said keeping the other days of the week free for committee work might help clear up the jam of appropriation bills.

Congressman's Daughter Shoots Self With Rifle

WASHINGTON (U)—A New York congressman's daughter who reportedly shot herself in a downtown hotel yesterday remained in critical condition today.

Police said Mrs. Malcolm Hurn, 27-year-old daughter of Rep. William B. Williams (R-N.Y.), locked herself in a ladies room of the hotel and shot herself in the abdomen with a .22-caliber rifle.

Mrs. Williams told newsmen her daughter had been depressed and under medical care for several months. She said the young woman was married April 2 to Malcolm Hurn, a Utica, N. Y., advertising man.

Five Senators Selected For New 'Hall Of Fame'

WASHINGTON—The Senate's new Hall of Fame will honor members of the "Great Triumvirate" of the 1820-50 period, plus a progressive and a conservative of the 20th century.

The choices, to be formally announced to the Senate today by Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass.), are Henry Clay of Kentucky, Daniel Webster of Massachusetts, John C. Calhoun of South Carolina, Robert M. La Follette Sr. of Wisconsin and Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

Kennedy, chairman of the special committee which made the selections, said his group was unanimous but did not claim the five were the "greatest senators of all times."

He noted that his committee was charged with selecting five "outstanding" senators to be honored by the placing of their portraits in a reception room at the Capitol near the Senate Chamber.

In his prepared speech, Kennedy reported that Clay, Webster, Calhoun and La Follette were among the top five in a poll of 150 historians and political scientists who advised the committee.

He did not name the other choice of the historians, but it was learned from another source that the man was George Norris of Nebraska. Taft was ninth in the poll.

Kennedy said that Taft was the first choice of senators now serving who sent their selections to the committee.

The Massachusetts senator said that Clay was chosen as "the Great Pacificator" who worked tirelessly to reconcile the conflict between the North and South. Webster as the powerful orator who championed an inseparable union, Calhoun as the "masterful

Defense Fund List Stresses Aerial Force

WASHINGTON—The Defense Department today asked Congress for new authority to spend $1,561,338,000 on military construction overseas and in every territory and state except Wyoming.

The new construction bill is $450,945,000 less than the total asked for the current fiscal year and $361,298,000 below the amount requested by Congress. The new request includes $51,572,000 for 2,381 military family housing units.

Just over half of the total asked is for the Air Force. Nearly one-fifth of the total dollar amount is for unidentified projects in "various locations" and one-sixth of the total is for classified work at home and abroad.

The summary of military construction requests by states and territories includes:

Probe Started In 'Kickbacks' To Unionists

NEWARK, N. J.—Prosecutor Charles V. Webb has announced his office is investigating an alleged "kickback" of over $100,000 to Teamster Union officials in connection with the handling of welfare funds.

In a separate and unrelated probe, the Essex County prosecutor disclosed he is checking half a million dollars worth of purchases by a former president of the giant Loyalty Group of insurance companies.

Asst. Prosecutor Sanford Freedman is in charge of both inquiries which were referred to Webb by State Atty. Gen. Grover C. Richmond Jr.

No formal charges have been filed.

An investigation is being conducted of the Loyalty Group, an association of eight insurance companies, in connection with the payment of its former president, John R. Cooney, of approximately $300,000 ostensibly for advertising.

Webb said in a statement.

Navy League Will Salute 57 Officers

NEW YORK—"Operation Remember"—a salute to 57 retired Marine Corps and Naval officers of three wars—features today's opening here of the annual Navy League convention.

The retired admirals and generals will be flown by special plane to Annapolis, Md. later today to review detachments of midshipmen at the U. S. Naval Academy.

Upon their return, they will be honored at a reception in the Roosevelt Hotel, site of this year's league convention.

Retired Fleet Adms. Chester W. Nimitz and William F. Halsey are to head the Navy delegation; two former commanders, Gen. Clinton B. Cates and Thomas Holcomb, the Marine contingent.

As a part of "Operation Remember," 10 top decorated Navy and Marine enlisted personnel will be honored.

Highlight of the three-day meeting is tomorrow's parade up Broadway by some 3,000 military marchers.

Woman Leaps Into Niagara, Goes Over Falls

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y.—A woman leaped into the swirling Niagara River yesterday and was carried over the American Falls, police said.

Police said the woman was not identified. However, she was believed to be Mrs. Mildred Hoffman, 47, of Yonkers, who was reported missing to police at Kenmore, a Buffalo suburb.

Mrs. Hoffman's automobile was found in a parking lot near the American Falls. Her husband Earl said his wife had planned to meet him in Niagara Falls. He said she had been despondent.

Mrs. Hoffman had been visiting relatives in Kenmore.

Bevan Says U. S. Can't Keep Peace In Mideast

LONDON—Leftwing Laborite Aneurin Bevan says the United States will be no more successful than Britain was in keeping peace in the Middle East.

"It is not possible to assume that Cadillac cars are more popular than Rolls-Royces over there," he told a news conference on his return from a three-week tour of India and the Middle East.

French Biologists Report Changes In Ducks With Chemical Injections

PARIS—A team of French biologists has managed, through chemical injections made after birth, to bring about radical mutations in 12 ducks.

The experiments reported yesterday aroused considerable interest in scientific circles here. They mark one of the few successful attempts to bring about changed characteristics in anything other than micro-organisms.

One of the scientists working on the project, Prof. Jacques Benoit of the College of France, said future possibilities of the experiments could be exciting but he cautiously refrained from predicting how they might be applied to human beings.

"One could hope to introduce beneficial characteristics in human beings," he said, "but the changes punishing crime, according to the produced could also be harmful." Encyclopedia Britannica.

It still is not known whether the new characteristics produced in the 12 ducks can be handed down to succeeding generations. Eggs from the changed ducks now are being incubated. A prime objective of the experiments is to see whether sex cells can be changed enough to modify hereditary characteristics.

The injections, Benoit said, produced changes in the size of the ducks, altered the shape of their heads and bodies and the way they walked and changed the color of their beaks and feathers.

Humphrey Finds Nasser 'Unhappy'

CAIRO—Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) talked almost three hours last night with President Nasser and later told reporters he found the Egyptian leader "unhappy but not bitter" about Egypt's relations with the United States.

Humphrey, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee on the Near East, arrived here yesterday on a fact-finding tour of the Middle East. He said he brought no messages for Egyptian government officials from Washington nor any plans for a settlement of Middle East problems.

Keyser High Girl Wins Scholarship

Miss S. Elizabeth Reed, Burlington, a senior at Keyser High School, has been named as one of the 830 winners of the largest scholarship competition conducted in the United States.

The 830 merit scholars and the colleges they have chosen to attend will share over $4 million in scholarship aid provided by 57 companies and foundations. The nationwide competition is conducted by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which annually searches the nation for its most able high school seniors.

Miss Reed, who is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Reed of Burlington, earlier attended the Burlington Model School. She maintains an A average at Keyser High School. She is a member of the National Honor Society, the HiTimes staff and is secretary of the Tri-Hi-Y.

The Burlington girl also was president of her junior class at Keyser High School. She is the first girl in the Mineral County school to receive the Bausch and Lomb Science award. She is active in the Youth Fellowship of the Presbyterian Church and also is active in 4-H work. She plans to attend Davis and Elkins College on her scholarship, and major in mathematics.

Miss Reed was one of 13 West Virginians to win national merit scholarships. Of the others four merit scholarship winners are Mich-are from Huntington, two each from Charleston and Parkersburg, and one each from Clarksburg, St. Albans, Triadelphia and Wheeling.

Ten Marylanders won national merit scholarships. Five of them are from Baltimore and the other plans to attend Davis and Elkins College on her scholarship, and major in mathematics.

The only other Tri-State area scholarship winner is Michael D. Reynolds, 122 East Union Street, Somerset, Pa., one of 57 Pennsylvanians so honored. He is a student at Mercersburg Academy and plans to major in biology at Princeton University.

Each merit scholarship provides its winners with the funds he needs to attend the college of his choice for four years.

The grants to the merit scholars, named today vary from a minimum monetary award of $100 a year for the four college years to over $2,000 a year in cases of great need. The average student's stipend is about $650 a year.

Among the donors to this scholarship program are The Sears-Roebuck Foundation, $500,000, and the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Foundation, $60,000.

Local Youth Posts Morals Charge Bond

Dewey Emerick, 20, of 11 Valley Street, posted $2,500 bond in Trial Magistrate Court on a morals charge.

Emerick was released from Allegany County Jail where he was being held along with Harvey C. Linn, RD 1, city, on charges of statutory rape involving two 13-year-old girls.

The pair was arrested Wednesday morning by State Trooper D. A. Tucker, who said the offenses took place at the Linn residence on Oldtown Road.

Linn is still being held for action of the October grand jury on $2,500 bond. Also in custody is one of the two girls on $500 bond as a material witness in the case. The second girl has posted her bond and was released.

Cresaptown United Fund Unit Formed

Cresaptown chapter of the County United Fund has been organized.

The chapter was organized in Cresaptown last Thursday with Herbert C. Heineman elected as chairman, according to County United Fund officials.

Twenty-five citizens of the community signed up as charter members.

The Cresaptown Homemakers Club has advised UF officials that it will support the one-drive plan and participate in the work of the Cresaptown chapter.

Formation of a UF chapter was announced last week in Flintstone as the Eastern Allegany Chapter.

William R. Carscaden, who assisted in the organization of the United Fund, led a discussion at the organization meeting.

The formation of a Barton chapter will be discussed at a meeting today at 8 p. m. in the Legion Hall at Barton.

Local Youth Wins National Award

Ralph Vincent, 34 Greene Street, has won honorable mention in an annual literary contest for teen-agers sponsored by Boy's Life Magazine.

The local youth won his award in competition with teen-agers from all 48 states. His prize-winning entry was a short story entitled "Desperate Ride." He was awarded a $50 U. S. Savings Bond and a fountain pen.

Hot Weather Ideal For Crops; Brings Bugs, Too

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—Unusually warm weather teamed up with normal amounts of moisture to produce nearly ideal conditions for growing crops in all parts of Maryland and Delaware last week. But the crop reporters said the hot weather also brought on the bugs.

Insects were active in large numbers in both states.

The Agriculture Marketing Service reported hay and pasture crops for the week ending April 27 were especially benefited by the hot, moist weather, responding with a new spurt of rapid growth.

Plowing for corn was at a peak level of activity and considerable progress was reported in preparing land for soybeans, tobacco and vegetable crops.

In nearly all areas, pea aphids and meadow spittlebugs in increasing numbers had joined the alfalfa weevil in hay fields. Various beetle pests were also active in early cucumbers, cantaloupes, asparagus and in tobacco beds.

The crop reporters said alfalfa is now generally infested with weevils, with about 90 per cent of the tips showing damage in Eastern Shore counties. West of the Chesapeake Bay and in the northern part of the peninsula, where infestations are less severe, spraying operations for this pest are just getting under way.

Pea aphids were beginning to multiply rapidly, especially on the Delmar Peninsula and in Howard County, the crop reporters added. But meadow spittlebug populations are still relatively light on alfalfa and clover in most sections.

Despite the buildup in insect numbers, hay crops and pastures reportedly made excellent growth. The high temperatures also gave a boost to small grains.

Advanced fields of barley ranged from 8 inches high in Frederick County to just beginning to head in St. Mary's County and in Sussex County, Delaware.

Some brown rust on wheat was reported in St. Mary's.

By the end of the week, nearly 70 per cent of the Maryland cornland and 55 per cent in Delaware had been plowed and readied for planting. Less than five per cent of the corn crop had been planted by the end of the week.

Tobacco plants in Southern Maryland ranged in development from "just emerging" in the northern counties to the size of a nickel in St. Mary's County. Damage from flea beetles was reported in beetles also were more numerous than usual in Kent County, Delaware. But the warm weather dried out the tobacco beds and left them less susceptible to blue mold. Green peas made rapid growth in both states with plants 1 to 2 inches high in Carroll County. Excellent heavy growth was reported in sweet potato beds.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

For Thursday, May 1, 1957:

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries)—Mixed vibrations. Some excellent and stimulating rays from the Sun, Mercury and Venus; some unfriendly ones from Jupiter and Saturn. Economy of time and money urged, but do push ahead in sound matters.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus)—A day for emphasizing all your fine assets; your unshakable sociable and genial disposition. Hard work, difficult problems to solve? Don't worry. Mental agility is encouraged; can help you in many ways.

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)—A stimulating day, holding much promise for those with ambitious leanings, those who apply themselves steadily, with vigor and forethought. Be conscientious, cooperative.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer)—A Moon today stresses less thought of self and a quickened interest in matters for the general good. Study, acquiring knowledge, making improvements, fulfillment of intellectual assignments under good rays.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo)—Your Sun auspicious, also Venus. Day augurs well for personal attainment, gain through persons to authority, government officials, also for written matters. Carry stressed in finances.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo)—Head Gemini now. Don't overdo or strain to achieve more than is reasonable but do get the most from your talents and opportunities. Improve the quality of output; use all assets well.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra)—More than usual caution needed in expenditures, in making changes. But all business and work matters can proceed profitably if handled smartly.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 23 (Scorpio)—You have many advantages in your favor—mostly your intelligence, ambition and courage. With these, and with hard work, stick-to-itiveness and patience you can make your mark now.

NOVEMBER 24 to DECEMBER 23 (Sagittarius)—Self-restraint and steady application to duty should counteract some unfriendly influences. Good deeds pay; don't fail to do your share.

DECEMBER 24 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn)—There are fewer restrictions than you may anticipate. You can cope with the hardest work or most trying situation if you remain calm, unhurried, and patient. Some fine prospects.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius)—You may be able to add new and improved twists to undertakings that need them; make improvements generally. A grand time for personal acquisition through work.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces)—You can profit by heading Sagittarius and Aquarius now. Heedle worry and doubt to the waste basket as you proceed with your duties.

HANDLE tasks cheerfully, determinedly. YOU BORN TODAY have command of ability and unusual talent in both artistic and mechanical activities; may have special gifts for writing, architecture, building, handling tricky machinery, tools, etc. Active mentally, you have great courage, are decisive, constructive, determined to achieve. Curb tendencies toward stubbornness, self-will, overindulgence in rich foods, strong beverages, pleasures.

HOW PLYMOUTH'S BIG ECONOMY WIN AFFECTS YOU!

If you're an average driver, you wouldn't have had a chance in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run. It takes seasoned professionals to win in this kind of competition.

Every car of every make entered in the 1957 Mobilgas Economy Run was a new 1957 stock model. Every car was carefully tuned for the Run and the cars were piloted by real experts in this exacting kind of driving. Naturally, the mileage they got is higher than the figure you can expect.

The way this race—and all previous Mobilgas Economy Runs—was judged is another area that should interest you:

Cars of different weights and engine displacements cannot compete on an equal basis. Such a competition would produce misleading miles-per-gallon figures. If miles-per-gallon were the only consideration, a motor bike could run away with first place. Obviously, other factors must be considered.

In order to give all cars a fair chance, the engineers used ton-miles-per-gallon as their yardstick—and as a basis for the official Mobilgas Economy Run prizes. This establishes a definite relationship between gasoline consumed, distance traveled, and weight carried. It is the only measure of gasoline economy that has any real significance to the engineers—or to you as an average motorist.

Now look at the results of the Run with the above thoughts in mind: Plymouth swept its field—First Place winner in "Class A," the division that included all the well-known low-price cars. As certified by the United States Automobile Club, Plymouth's official ton-miles-per-gallon led the entire "Class A" field.

Bear in mind, too, that Plymouth's winning mark was set using a V-8 engine with TorqueFlite automatic transmission. Several of the losing cars in Plymouth's division used 6-cylinder engines—supposedly more economical. But Plymouth beat every car in sight, 6's and V-8's alike.

But here's what Plymouth's victory does mean to you: The Plymouth you buy at your Plymouth dealer's is the same, engine for engine, part for part, as the Plymouth that won the Mobilgas Economy Run.

The superior engineering that enabled Plymouth to run away with first place is built into every Plymouth. And that means you can expect economy that will save you real money in ordinary driving.

So before you invest a dime in any automobile, it's to your advantage to compare all three low-price cars. Compare them for economy... for beauty... for riding and handling ease... for performance. Then make your decision.

Only Plymouth dares to make so bold a challenge, because only Plymouth, of the low-price 3's, has so many three-years-ahead features, yet leads its field in day-in, day-out economy.

Prove it to yourself. Your Plymouth dealer will be glad to give you a guest drive at your convenience.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: It is absolutely hopeless for an employee to earn the respect and consideration of an employer who is not an employer. Or is it a fixed rule that the employee has to bow down to unpleasant supervision?

All through my years of job preparation, the importance was stressed of knowing the job, and seeing what is to be done and doing it. But, to my consternation, I find that knowledge or procedure is disapproved in this situation. In fact, it seems the only diplomacy is to pretend I wouldn't know how to pick up the phone without instructions—and I don't answer it unless I'm told to.

I realize that much of the trouble stems from my own anxiety to give a good performance and hold the job—and I feel I could do much better if I knew more about the business practices here. But such knowledge is denied me, on the terms I need.

Any Escape From Dislike?

When work is discussed, that will come to my desk to be recorded, there is a private conference behind closed doors. Then, weeks later, if I don't know all about the matter, this officer makes very uncomplimentary remarks. And he is the only staff person with whom I have any unpleasant moments.

Everyone else seems to have confidence in me, and liking for me. When I started here, one man was said to be impossible, but he and I got along fine. Now he is retired and I get along well with his successor too in a fine manner.

Do you think I should simply adjust to the fact that this officer and I don't like each other, and let it go at that? Or is there any way I might influence him to be more tolerant of me? I know it would be practically impossible to find another job at my age.—O. L.

Too Insistent On Being Right?

DEAR O. L.: In all probability you are having trouble with this particular officer mainly because he happens to be your immediate superior — or your boss in the hierarchy. And it is a possibility worth considering that you weren't getting along well with him, largely because you are far more tenaciously insistent on trying to give him the benefit of your theories of how to be helpful—instead of taking your cue from his ideas and his temperament.

It is a characteristic blunder of older women to become subtly difficult, in terms of psychological rigidity and emotional resistance, when crossed, corrected, given orders, treated as a subordinate, etc., in the business world. For the most part, they just "can't take it" amiably, and fall in line with the leader's requirements—as younger persons can, who aren't yet so sensitive about their "importance."

Older Woman Handicaps Self

It is the older woman's need to assert herself, as an antidote to her self-doubts, that makes her too often a thorn in the side of supervisors and co-workers.

This is a major reason why most seasoned employees would rather not hire older women. They just don't want to have to wrestle with the older woman's fixed ideas of how to proceed. And it is a fact that the older woman—take yourself, for example—usually clings tenaciously to her preconceived notions of "proper methods," even when the boss sees otherwise.

As of now, you've made a big issue, in your mind, of the officer's methods, as versus your theories. And unconsciously you've felt a necessity to prove yourself right, and prove him wrong. Hence the antagonistic undertone of your anxiety, which evokes his dislike.

Instead of trying to adjust to such tension, why don't you relax into wholehearted acceptance of his ways of doing? That will be easier, and should have a good effect on him, too.—M. H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write to her in care of The Evening Times.

Talk On Legislation To Be Feature For Men's Group

Roger Warren Jones, assistant director for legislative reference of the Bureau of the Budget, will address the Men of Emmanuel at a dinner meeting in the parish house of Emmanuel Episcopal Church at 6:30 p. m. today.

"The President and Legislation" will be his topic.

W. Eric Gibbs, president, said Jones has been connected with the federal government since 1933.

A 49-year-old native of New Hartford, Conn., Jones was graduated from Cornell University in 1928. He did graduate work at Columbia University from 1930 until 1932 and there obtained his M. A. degree.

Between 1933 and 1939, he held a series of posts with the Central Statistical Board in Washington. It was in 1939 that he joined the staff of the Bureau of the Budget.

His connection with the bureau was interrupted by three years of service in the Army during World War II.

Jones has served as guest lecturer at Cornell, at the Lila School of Harvard University, at the Woodrow Wilson School of Princeton University, and at the Industrial College of the Armed Forces.

Local Youth Returns

Allan Ashby, 15, Frederick Street, has returned home after being missing since Monday. He left a note telling his parents he was going to run away.

Hudson Gets City Position As Draftsman

William R. Hudson has been named as temporary draftsman in the city's Engineering Department.

The appointment was approved by the Mayor and Council Monday and will be effective June 3.

His salary will be $300 a month.

City Engineer Charles R. Nuzum submitted a report to council in which he said a fill on a sewer line in the bed of the old C&O Canal had revealed no cracks or damage to the line.

This will mean a saving of $250,000 to the city since the pipe will not have to be replaced.

Nuzum said the complete fill in the canal bed will start soon.

In other activity, council ordered checks issued to city employees tomorrow for the last two weeks of April.

Parking meter inspector Harry Whisner said collections the week of April 21 were $300.70 compared to $793.92 the week of April 14, an increase of $15.78.

The water level at Lake Gordon is five inches above the crest of the spillway and at Lake Koon three inches above, according to a report from C. L. Buolmarkle, assistant superintendent of Evitts Creek Water Company.

Consumption for the week ending yesterday was 82,690,000 gallons compared to 79,540,000 the same period a year ago.

Files Equity Suit

Mary Alice Wilt yesterday filed an equity suit in Allegany County Circuit Court against Benny Francis Wilt.

Helps You Overcome FALSE TEETH Looseness and Worry

No longer be annoyed or feel ill-at-ease because of loose, wobbly false teeth. FASTEETH, an improved alkaline (non-acid) powder, sprinkled on your plates holds them tighter so they feel more comfortable. Avoid embarrassment caused by loose plates. Get FASTEETH today at any drug counter.

More Flower Show Winners Named

Additional prize winners in the horticultural division of the fourth Community Flower Show which closed yesterday at the Eagles Home on North Mechanic Street were announced by the Garden Club of Cumberland which sponsored the program.

The two-day event, called "Appalachian Spring," was visited by several hundred persons during its exhibit here. The winners are:

Frostburg Gets Phone Money

Expenditures totaling $33,000 for two projects to enlarge the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company systems at Frostburg and Buckeystown have been approved by the concern's board of directors.

Robert G. Garner, local telephone company manager, said the amount will be used for both the Frostburg system and for the Buckeystown which is located near Hagerstown. He said, however, that it is uncertain how much of the money will be spent at Frostburg.

Most of the money for Frostburg will be used for cable replacement and in that area. Some also is scheduled for expenditure on central office dial equipment.

Policeman, 60, Clubbed By Murder Suspect

BALTIMORE (AP)—A 60-year-old policeman severely clubbed by a murder suspect during a wild 15-minute elevator ride was in fair condition at Mercy Hospital with head injuries.

Patrolman James G. Mach was beaten into unconsciousness yesterday with a wooden door jam by 36-year-old Meachow Bunch of Baltimore, whose escape attempt was thwarted. Bunch has been questioned in connection with the fatal beating of restaurateur Heinz Heymann.

Bunch escaped from his third-floor detention cell at Central Police Headquarters and attacked the unarmed Mach upon entering the elevator. Police said Mach was given the job of operating the elevator because of poor health.

For the next 15 minutes, Bunch rode the elevator up and down while fighting the patrolman and looking for a chance to escape. Within minutes after the escape, police with drawn guns crowded around exits from the elevator. They made futile attempts to pry open the doors with nightsticks, iron bars and boards while Mach's anguished cries rang out.

Finally, Chief Inspector Fred L. Ford sprang open the lock on the fourth floor doors with a metal clothes hanger. When the elevator passed the floor, Ford opened the doors and jumped inside.

Mach lay on the blood-drenched floor with Bunch standing over him. Ford clubbed Bunch to the floor with his gun butt.

After treatment at the hospital for head injuries, Bunch was returned to the central cellblock.

Police theorized Bunch could have made his escape if he merely had taken the elevator to a lower floor and walked away.

Bunch is one of two Negro porters who worked at the uptown restaurant operated by Deutsches Haus Inc., and which Heymann headed as president.

Heymann's badly battered body was found in the building Sunday. He had been beaten to death and police said robbery apparently was the motive.

Two pieces of one-inch galvanized pipe were found in the cellar of the building yesterday. The 20-inch lengths of pipe bore status and they were to be analyzed by the crime laboratory for blood and fingerprints.

Heymann, a naturalized citizen, came to this country in 1914 from Oldenburg, Germany.

Blacktopping Ends Flood Work Detour

The blacktopping of North Mechanic Street between the B&O viaduct and Bow Street was expected to be completed today and thus end the detour which has been in effect in recent weeks.

The street was torn up to permit the installation of storm sewers in connection with flood control work.

Budget Sets New Record

SALISBURY — Wilcomico County has adopted a record budget, almost 2½ million dollars, an increase of $100,000 over last year's budget.

In the budget adopted yesterday, however, the county tax rate was held to last year's figure of $1.39 per $100 of assessed evaluations. This was partly because the county's assessment for tax purposes increased nine million dollars over last year's 92-million-dollar figure.

The highest budget appropriation, of $1,715,000 went to the Wilcomico County Board of Education.

MAY POLE DANCE CIRCUS FEATURE — Fourth and Fifth Grade children under direction of Miss Maureen Mantley are shown performing the traditional May Pole dance which will be one of the features of the spring circus program sponsored by Johnson Heights School PTA Friday night at the school. Those participating are, Brenda Brown, Clayton Blume, Aleta Grayson, Terry Goss, Linda Fisher, Alvin Lepley, Carolyn Bryant, Howard Harclerod, La Rita Myers, Bobby Brady, Mary En-ninger, Roger Troxler, Ellen Bolinger, David Moses. The two boys holding the pole are Roy Shipley and Larry Shirk. The children who will also participate in the dance but not shown in the picture are Sammy Huffman, Gary Redmond, David Emerick, Charles Hammersmith, David Patterson, Donna Kalbaugh, Richard Kaiser, Glendon Oster, Larry Shewbridge and Gary Smith. Children in other grades will also take part in the evening's program.

Johnson Heights Plans Spring Circus

The Johnson Heights School PTA is sponsoring a spring circus program Friday at 6:30 p. m. at the school.

Circus features include a tent, cotton candy and popcorn. A fancy work booth will feature doll clothes, aprons and other needlework. Homemade candy, baked goods, jelly, canned fruits and honey will be available, and a children's booth will have flowers for Mothers Day. A sidewalk cafe will offer refreshments.

The Port Hill High School Junior Band will give a concert.

Included in the program are a May Pole dance by the Fourth and Fifth grade children directed by Miss Maureen Mantley; a Mexican hat dance by Fourth Graders directed by Mrs. Virginia Barnard; Norwegian Mountain March by the Fourth Grade directed by E. W. Carter; Czechoslovakian folk dance by boys and girls of the Fifth

Decorator Added To Store Staff

Lewis Hensal Jr., New York interior decorator, has been added to the staff of Hafer House, local furniture store, according to John J. Hafer, proprietor.

Hensal, a native of Bedford, is a graduate of the Whitman School of Interior Design, New York, and also did graduate work in color design at the Parsons School of Interior Design, New York.

Hensal said Hensal will assist the public in the selection of furniture, draperies, floor coverings and accessories.

Hensal has worked as a decorator in New York and more recently was employed by a Johnstown firm. He has spoken before many civic and women's organizations on interior decoration.

Shotgun Wound Fatal To Man

William Pete Smigal, 39, was found dead Monday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smigal, in Davis, W. Va., the victim of self-inflicted shotgun wounds.

Smigal was found in a bedroom of the home by his mother, Mrs. Anna (Kloro) Smigal. His father was not at home at the time.

O. B. Collins of Thomas, acting Tucker County coroner, said Smigal died instantly of head wounds from a single shotgun blast. Cpl. James R. Rightmire, of the West Virginia State Police at Parsons, also investigated.

He was born at Albert, W. Va., and was a veteran of World War II. During the war he was held prisoner by the Japanese for many months.

Surviving besides his parents, are his widow, Joan (Gruduff) Smigal; two daughters, Misses Cynthia and Roxanne Smigal, both at home; four brothers, Frank and Alex Smigal Jr., both of Baltimore; Henry, Davis, and Walter Smigal, New London, Conn.; and a sister, Mrs. Delores Peters, Williamsport, Md.

The body is at the Spiggle Funeral Home, Davis, where services will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p. m. by Rev. A. B. Mann, pastor of Davis Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Davis Cemetery.

Shocking

Fatal accidents from electric shock, which now take more than 1,000 lives annually in the United States, reach their peak during the summer, more than two-fifths of the year's fatalities occurring during June, July and August.

Three Injured In Car Crash

Three persons were injured early yesterday morning when the car in which they were riding struck a parked car and then smashed into a dry cleaning establishment of Decatur Street.

Injured were Michael F. Finan, 19, of 291 Cumberland Street, driver, who sustained a deep laceration of his forehead; Mary Louise Logsdon, 18, of 212 Cecelia Street, X-rayed for possible chest and skull injuries, and Judy Hare, 15, of 213 Williams Street, X-rayed for a possible knee injury.

A fourth occupant, Jerome T. Logsdon, 16, of 212 Cecelia Street, apparently was uninjured. The injured were treated at Sacred Heart Hospital.

City Police Officer Clarence Valentine said the accident happened as Finan was traveling south on Bedford Street after taking some friends home from a dance. As he attempted to turn onto Decatur Street the car apparently went out of control, glanced off the curb and across the street into the parked car of Thomas I. Mull of Wellersburg, Pa., and then into Rudy's Cleaners and Dyers, 511 Decatur Street.

County Jail Man's Home, Sweet Home

DALLAS — A man wounded in a street brawl was asked for his home address by hospital attendants and police. "The county jail," he replied, and would say no more. Police found he was right. He had been released from jail earlier in the day after serving a drunk and disorderly sentence.

Of the 661 railroads in the United States in 1950, only 157 are still operating under the same names as then.

A&P Appeals Court Ruling

The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company yesterday sought to convince the Court of Appeals it should reverse a $5,000 judgment awarded Steven Adams of Consolidation near Frostburg.

Adams claimed he and his family became sick after eating lettuce he bought at the A & P store in Frostburg.

An Allegany County jury could not come to a decision and the case was moved first to Washington and then Garrett where the verdict in favor of Adams was returned.

The A & P argued before the Court of Appeals that no evidence was offered that the lettuce wasn't wholesome at the time of purchase.

The company attorneys also contended that the doctrine of implied warranty of wholesomeness of food does not apply to unprocessed, perishable raw vegetables if purchased and not eaten promptly.

Mass Feeding Class To Meet

A class in emergency mass feeding, sponsored by the Allegany County Chapter of the Red Cross and County Civil Defense Organization, will be held at 7 p.m. today at Fort Hill High School.

The 16-hour course being taught by Mrs. Gladys Eaton, supervisor of cafeterias in county public schools, got under way last week. This evening the 23 participants will hear discussions on sanitation in a disaster feeding program, feeding for special groups and planning of a practice session on preparing sandwiches and coffee.

In the basic course each participant is furnished with a pocket manual for individual use in time of disaster.

The course, according to Mrs. George Legge, executive secretary of the county RC chapter, consists of five two-hour classes and a six-hour field demonstration which will be held the latter part of May in conjunction with "Operation Flame," a statewide CD alert involving fire fighting equipment and rescue teams.

CANCER DRIVE CONFERENCE—One of the largest sections of the city—Johnson Heights and South Cumberland above the subway—has been organized for tonight's Cancer Crusade door-to-door canvass by Mrs. William P. Lawrence (third from right). Final plans were outlined and workers' kits distributed at a recent brunch for area leaders at the home of Mrs. Lawrence.

Left to right are Mrs. Lester H. Longton, Jr., Mrs. Norman C. Curtis, Mrs. Edith Martin, Mrs. Edward J. Milbrada, city chairman, Mrs. C. William Bailey, Mrs. Lawrence, captain of the area, Mrs. A. John Weber, Jr., Mrs. Wayne Hill and Miss Mary Anne Lewis. About 100 workers will knock on doors in the area.

Foreign Correspondent Will Address Teachers' Group

C. Yates McDaniel, foreign correspondent for the Associated Press, will speak at the annual spring dinner of the Association for Childhood International, Allegany Branch, Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club.

McDaniel will interpret for his teacher-audience some of the happenings in today's hectic world, and will describe some of his experiences.

At the outbreak of the Chinese-

Japanese conflict, he was in Tientsin when the bombers arrived. He rode a Chinese ambulance to Nanking when they arrived again. He watched them bomb Canton, Hankow and Singapore. The Japanese bombed the ship on which he was attempting to escape to Java. It took him seven and a half days and 1,200 roundabout miles to reach Batavia.

The Japanese followed him southward to Australia where for a period he headed the Associated Press bureau at Melbourne. He also headed the AP bureau at Singapore for a time.

More recently, the Associated Press has returned McDaniel to this country and he is presently on the all-important "Pen-tagon beat," where he is highly regarded as an able reporter and an authority.

He will be introduced by F. Alton Weatherholt of the staff of the Cumberland News.

The program will include the invocation by Earle Bracey, introduction of guests by the president, Raymond Skidmore; remarks by Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools; and selected vocal numbers by the Fort Hill School banders, a quartet directed by Harold B. Hanson, Fort Hill High School music instructor.

Officers of the ACEI here also include Samuel Lisanti, first vice president; Orpha Clark second vice president; Helen Kreiling, corresponding secretary; Thomas Wagner, recording secretary; Mary Straw, treasurer, and Winifred Greene, advisor.

Two Youths Enlist In Naval Service

Richard N. Hawkins, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Hawkins, 641 Columbia Avenue, and Jon Dale Lohr, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lohr, RD 1, Frostburg, have enlisted in the Navy and are receiving their basic training at the Naval Training Center at Bainbridge.

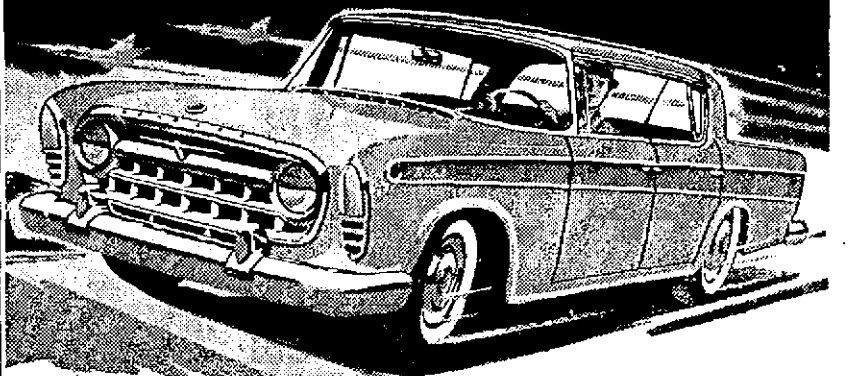

Hawkins, who attended Allegany High School, enlisted as a seaman recruit, while Lohr, who graduated from Beall High School, Frostburg, and attended Frostburg State Teachers College, enlisted as a high school seaman recruit.

HOLLYWOOD'S NEWEST IMPORT

Carrying script, Gia leaves North Hollywood home for studio.

A new Hollywood importation from abroad is Italy's Gia Scala. The 20-year-old brown-haired beauty from Rome aims to find film success without depending on the physical elements that have helped her countrywomen. "I'd rather act from the neck up," she says. But she can't escape it: her form is one of her assets.

Gia (short for Giovanna) is the daughter of an Irish mother and an Italian father. She was one of a quartet of foreign beauties brought to Hollywood on a talent search. Winning a film part, she stayed on, obtained the feminine lead in "Garment Jungle."

Gia lives in a North Hollywood duplex with her mother. Swimming is one of her principal sports. Her mother is a painter, and Gia shares this interest, keeping an easel and oils always at hand. She makes her own hats. Right now she insists she isn't thinking of marriage. Partial to deep discussions, her friends call her "little philosopher."

Gia Scala reveals more than what she terms "acting from the neck up." But it's at home, not the studio, so she's really not acting. It's a dance exercise.

At studio, Gia has her makeup applied by Clay Campbell, studio makeup head.

Gia eats lunch on set while waiting for call to go on. Her stand-in, Troy Antaky, right, joins her.

At home, Gia likes to paint. She puts finishing touches on one of her paintings.

She prides herself on her cooking. For dinner, it's a pot of real Italian spaghetti.

Gia and Robert Loggia in scene from "Garment Jungle." She portrays wife of garment union organizer.

No matter how busy she is, Gia always finds time to wash her sports car.

New Building Work To Start At Frostburg

Bids To Be Sought
Not Later Than July 1
On Gunter Hall

Ground will be broken this fall for the new building on the campus of Frostburg State Teachers College.

R. Bowen Hardesty, president of the college, and James L. Reid, Baltimore, supervisor of school plants and building for the State Department of Education, conferred on final plans yesterday for this structure.

It will be a student union-dining hall. Preliminary drawings have been corrected and it is expected that the project will be advertised for bids not later than July 1.

Start In Fall
Actual construction should start by early fall, Hardesty announced.

Funds allotted for the project amount to $422,000, which includes $352,000 for the building and $70,000 for equipment.

The two-story brick structure will be called Gunter Hall, being named after William A. Gunter, Cumberland attorney and a member of the State Department of Education.

It will be located between Lowndes Hall and the new women's residence hall and on the site of the present tennis courts. The building will face east on the college quadrangle.

Organization Rooms

The first or ground floor will serve as a meeting place for students. Here will be located rooms for organizations such as the yearbook, State-To-Date, Cumberland attorney and a member of the State Department of Education.

Also on this floor will be a snack bar and the refrigeration and storage space for the kitchen of the dining hall.

On the second floor will be a student lounge at the entrance, and a dining hall equipped to handle 400 students at a time. The kitchen will be located at the rear and will have two serving rooms. The serving will be cafeteria style.

Also to be provided will be a small private dining room to be used by small parties and for special occasions.

Buildings To Blend

The overall size of the building will be 70 feet wide and 150 feet long. An entrance will be located to the dining room from the present level of the driveway along Lowndes hall.

According to Reid, the architecture of Gunter Hall will blend in with the style of the other new buildings on the campus.

He also reported that preliminary drawings are being made by the architect for the new college laboratory school.

The General Assembly provided appropriations during this fiscal year for Gunter Hall, the laboratory school and for a new athletic field to be located in the rear of Conpton Hall.

Reid also reported that there are sufficient funds to complete the third floor of the men's dormitory.

Rural Letter Carriers Plan Annual Meet

The fourth annual meeting of the Allegany-Garrett County Rural Letter Carrier Association and its Auxiliary will be held Saturday at the LaVale Fire Hall.

Wilbur L. Ross of Frostburg, president, said the meeting, which will get underway at 7:30 p. m., will be preceded by a dinner which will be served by the fire company auxiliary.

Approximately 25 carriers, and their wives, are expected to attend the event which is open to retired and substitute rural mail carriers.

Guests will include John R. Arrington, Marietta, president of the state RLCC association; Perry H. Smith of Rhoadesville, state secretary, and W. Fred Coursey of Church Hill, chairman of the state executive committee.

The meeting will feature election of officers, who will serve two-year terms. Plans for the Maryland state convention, to be held in Frostburg July 15-16, will be discussed.

Following the meeting, a demonstration will be presented by a representative of a firm which manufactures safely equipment and right-side drive mechanism.

Methodist Men

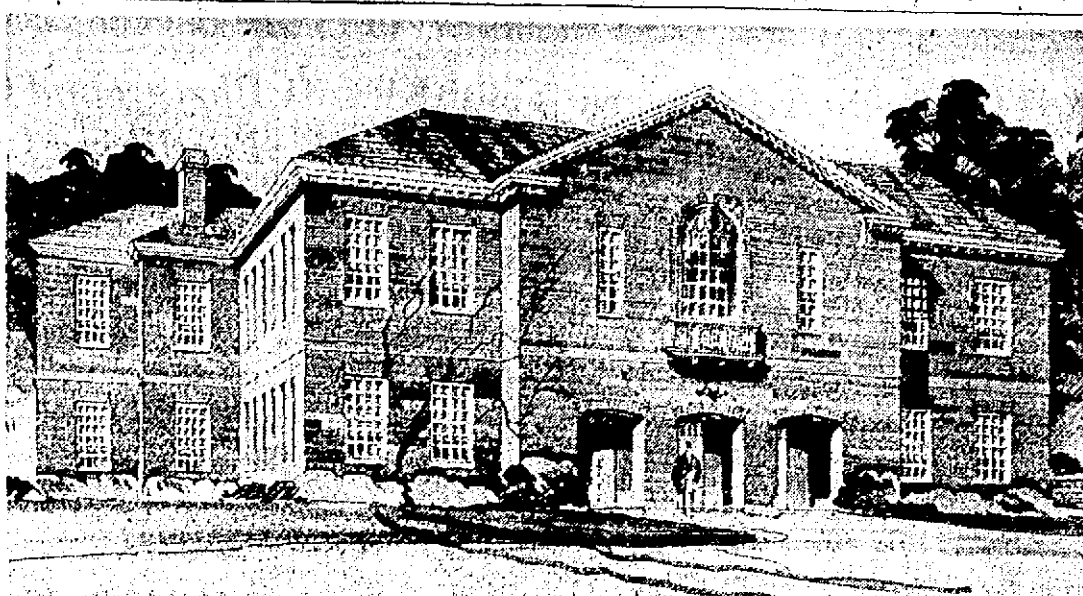

To Meet Saturday

The Methodist Men of First Methodist Church will hold a business meeting Saturday at 7:30 p. m. in the church.

At 8:30 p. m. the film, "The Life of Martin Luther," will be shown and the congregation is invited, according to William Deremer, president.

Riders To Meet

The Potomac Valley Riding Club will meet Saturday at 8 p. m. at Woodland Inn, near Short Gap.

GUNTER HALL—This is the architect's drawing of the newest building planned at Frostburg State Teachers College. The student union-dining hall will be called Gunter Hall in honor of William A. Gunter, Cumberland attorney who is a member of the State Board of Education. The structure, to be in the same architectural design as the other new buildings on the college quadrangle, will cost approximately $422,000. The project will probably start this fall.

Music Event To Be Held At Parkside

The pupils of grades four, five and six of Parkside School will present a musical program Friday at 7:30 p. m. in the school auditorium.

The program will be presented in two parts. The first will consist of selections by the boys and girls who have been taking instrumental music lessons from Miss Pauline Cira and Harry Malcom, county instrumental music teachers.

The beginners' group will present "Lovely Evening," "German Marching Song," and "Barcarole." The pupils in the fifth and sixth grades, who make up the advanced instrumental music group, will present "A Melody," "Theme From Symphony No. 4," and "After the Ball."

The second part of the program will include "Skip To My Lou," a rhythm activity by Mrs. Lena Kenney's third and fourth grades, with the piano accompaniment being played by Patty Robertson, Edward Barger, Ronald Horning and All Wallitzky. "Green Sieves," a dance, will also be done by this group. A piano solo "Starlight Waltz," will be played by Barger, a fourth grade student.

"Dutch Couple Dance" and "Irish Lili" and a rhythm activity, "The Windmill," will be presented by Miss Margaret Beck's fourth grade.

The third and fourth grade chorus will sing two selections, "Springtime" and "The Maypole."

"Swing on the Corner" will be a dance by a group of fifth grade students under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Darlene Pepp Brockman. Brucanna Young, and Mary Brenda Bonebrake will sing "Round and Round." They will be assisted by a group of sixth grade girls.

The boys' chorus which is made up of all of the boys in the fifth and sixth grades will sing three numbers, "From the Halls of Montezuma," "Semper Paratus" and "Make America Proud of You." This group has been directed by the sixth grade teacher, Mr. Raymond Ralston.

"Slumber" and "Blue Bonnets" will be sung by all of the girls in the fifth and sixth grades.

"Rustic Dance," a piano duet, will be played by Charlotte Richardson and Patricia O'Hara.

The Parkside Glee Club which includes all of the boys and girls in the fifth and sixth grades will sing "Spring Time Has Come" and "May Day Carol" to conclude the program.

The entire program has been directed by Mrs. Kenney, Miss Beck, Mrs. Pepper and Raymond Ralston, members of the school faculty, and Mrs. Ruth Ludman, resource music teacher.

Chief Flynn Cites Need For Local Policewoman

Police Chief R. Emmett Flynn this morning again stressed the urgent need of a full-time policewoman for the Cumberland Police Department.

Chief Flynn stated: "As a follow up to our need for an effective curfew for Cumberland, I want to again stress the need for a policewoman to take care of wayward girls. The public would be shocked by the lurid tales told by teenage girls to the police."

"I know that mothers and fathers are deeply concerned about the welfare of their daughters and so are the police. It is search and question any female, but the job of a well-trained policewoman."

"It would be the duty of such a woman to look after teenage runaways, truants and delinquents under ten years of age. She would be invested with full police power, and would be required to go into homes and seek causes and keep in touch with the girl until such time as she feels the girl is rehabilitated."

The chief also said that he believes it would be an excellent idea for the magistrate of juvenile causes to turn over any wayward girls that might come into his court from Cumberland to this policewoman, and not to a case worker, as she (the policewoman) would have police power and some authority to compel obedience to the parole conditions.

Flynn said in connection with the program, the state would also do well to appoint a woman parole officer because she could more effectively handle girls' problems than does a male parole officer.

Chief Flynn has made several requests for a full-time woman in the past, and said this morning with the apparent increase in vandalism, teenage fights and other juvenile problems the necessity is greater now than before.

The chief also stated that he believes ten more men are needed to adequately police Cumberland. The chief noted that with the advent of the five-day work week, each platoon has six men off each day, making a total of 18 men off in a 24-hour period.

Besides the regular days off, the additional burden of 22 days vacation and 15 days sick leave, makes it very difficult for the police to function properly, Flynn said.

Walsh added that as a result of the society's educational program, more persons are reporting for a medical checkup.

Speaking of the educational aspect of the program, he said "There are about 80,000 Americans now living who have been saved from cancer because of prompt and proper treatment."

"An additional 700,000 treated within the last five years will live to join the ranks of those saved."

Quality Control

Section To Meet

The American Society for Quality Control, Cumberland section, will hear A. P. Stergion of Corning Glass Works, at a meeting tomorrow at 8 p. m. at Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club.

His subject will be quality control in glass manufacture. Stergion was graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, receiving his bachelor of science degree in 1938 and master of science degree in 1940.

During 1938-49 he was associated with Oceanographic Institute at Woods Hole, Mass. During World War II, he was at the Research and Development Center of Aberdeen Proving Grounds where he first entered the field of quality control. He was in charge of statistical quality control which analyzed results obtained by testing both projectiles and armor plating.

In 1946, Stergion joined Corning Glass as a quality control engineer. He was promoted to quality control manager of Corning's electrical products division and in 1955 named manager of quality control for the manufacturing staff division, a position he presently holds.

He is chairman of the Corning-Lima Section of the American Society for Quality Control. A dinner will precede the business session at 6:30 p. m.

Culprit Gets $438 In Cash At Lonaconing

State Police today continued its investigation of a $438 robbery yesterday afternoon at two Lonaconing business offices.

Sgt. William F. Baker, criminal investigator for the Maryland State Police, said no leads have been discovered in the robbery of the offices of James Holmes, district tax collector, and James S. Getty, assistant state's attorney, who operates an insurance business in Lonaconing.

The theft occurred after $3,200 from the two offices had been deposited in the branch bank of the Liberty Trust Company, located in the same building where the breaking and entering took place.

Maryland State Police said the intruder jimmied the front doors. The offices are located on the second floor of the building, occupied by the branch bank.

Getty reported that an inventory of cash in his office showed the culprit took $308, which is covered by insurance. Approximately $20 was taken from the tax collector's office.

Shortly before the breaking and entering of that office, Holmes had deposited $2,500 in the bank. And prior to the forced entry of the insurance office, $700 had been deposited in the bank by Mrs. Isabell Grove, manager and secretary.

A small pinch bar or crow bar was used by the culprit who apparently left no fingerprints. He also overlooked other money as he hurriedly completed his job.

An occupant of an apartment on the same floor said she was busy washing clothes and heard no unusual noise or disturbance. Investigating are Sgt. Baker, Tfc. Donald Wade, and Trooper Joseph Stakem, of the State Police and Police Officer Dale Lynden of Lonaconing.

To Collect Late Fees

A one-day collection of late water rents and garbage fees will be held from 1 to 5 p. m. tomorrow at the Ridgeley Council room on Ridgeley Street, according to Mrs. Estlin H. Turner, town recorder. The deadline for the fees expired April 16.

Final Steel Beam Set At Glass Plant

Marks Completion Of First Major Contract At Site

The last piece of steel was erected this morning at the North Branch plant of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, marking the completion of the first major contract.

William L. Heinman, project engineer, said the final beam was erected on the warehouse building by the contractor, the American Bridge Company.

Flag Raised

A flag raising ceremony was held at the warehouse in observance of the occasion. This is traditional on projects of American Bridge Company, one of the largest steel erection companies in the world.

There will be some small miscellaneous steel work to be done in other contracts, but this was the last of the major project.

The American Bridge Company started its part of the construction of the plant in September 1955. Since that time the firm's workers have put into place 10,000 tons of steel in building structures and another 2,000 tons in the melting tank.

Finish Date Not Set

Heinman said Pittsburgh Plate is working toward the completion of the plant, but is not at liberty to set a date on the finish.

Last night another department, the industrial engineering section, moved into the new office building from the temporary structure.

Already in their permanent quarters are the personnel and employment offices, the manager and assistant manager, accounting and payroll and first aid.

Woman Dies From Injuries

HAGERSTOWN — Miss Maud Eva Rice, director of personnel at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington for many years, died today of injuries suffered in an automobile accident Sunday.

Miss Rice, 50, of Washington was fatally injured on U.S. 40 west of Hagerstown when her car collided with a truck. She died in Washington County Hospital here.

State Trooper Alan Martin said Miss Rice had been in Bedford, Pa. looking over some property she was buying. She was returning to Washington at the time.

Martin said the Rice car, eastbound, attempted to pass several others and collided head-on with a truck driven by Charles Sigel of Armaranth, Pa. Sigel received minor injuries and is reported in good condition at the hospital.

Miss Rice was a native of Homewood in Franklin County, Kan.

Pastor Plans Final Sermon

Rev. G. A. Wagner, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church who has accepted a call to Martini Lutheran Church, Baltimore, will give his farewell sermon here Sunday.

Rev. Wagner has been pastor here for five years and is expected to move his family to Baltimore next Thursday.

Rev. Herbert W. Nommensen of Milwaukee, Wis., who will replace him here, is expected to assume his duties about mid-June.

Fort Hill May Program Today

Fort Hill High School's annual May Day Festival will be presented today at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium. Feature of the program, which is open to the public, is the coronation of May Queen.

Miss Patsy Harper will be crowned at tonight's program by Miss Betty Smith, last year's queen.

The general theme of the festival is "Big, Wide Wonderful World."

Arguments End In $5,000 Damage Suit

Local Woman Seeks Damages In "Mouse In Bottle" Case

Arguments in a $5,000 damage suit against the local Coca Cola Bottling Works ended shortly before noon today, with Chief Judge George Henderson excusing the jury and witnesses until 1 p. m.

The action was brought by Mrs. Caroline V. Henderson, 71, wife of Elmer D. Henderson, 605 Hill Top Drive, who claimed to have suffered mental and physical illness as a result of drinking part of a bottle of the soft drink before finding that it contained a dead mouse.

Mrs. Henderson, represented by Edward J. Ryan and William L. Wilson Jr., testified that she purchased the bottle of "Coke" while attending a bingo game at St. Mary's Hall last May 7.

Many witnesses

Witnesses for the claimant included her husband, Mrs. Frances Bechtel of Philadelphia, her daughter, Mrs. Marie B. Campbell, her daughter-in-law, William Malachuk, concession worker who sold the bottle of tonic, and Mrs. Lucy Sine, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Moore, Mrs. Edna M. Young and Mrs. Percy Campbell, who were either seated close to Mrs. Henderson at the bingo game, or who are neighbors.

Also testifying for Mrs. Henderson were Dr. Leo H. Ley Jr., who treated the claimant from shortly after the incident until last September 4; and Dr. F. A. G. Murray, who examined Mrs. Henderson at the request of her attorneys.

The doctors explained the symptoms of Mrs. Henderson's ailments, as well as the treatment which she received. After Dr. Murray had testified, Judge Henderson injected a bit of humor by asking if part of Mrs. Henderson's diagnosis was not like "a sand blister on a tire."

The jurist said it was for his own information, pointing out that none of the Senior Class of Beall High School, Frostburg, who attended the trial as part of their school work, would recognize such a description. For the benefit of the Beall High class, Judge Henderson also pointed out that there was no relationship between himself and the claimant, adding that if there would be he would be automatically barred from presiding.

Roy C. Lottig, manager of the local Coca Cola plant for the past 31 years, explained the process a bottle goes through from the time one is returned to the plant until it is refilled and capped. He pointed out that 4,342,000 bottles of Coca Cola were sold in the Cumberland area last year, and that the ratio of complaints of finding mice in bottles has occurred only four times in the last 20 years.

Dr. Carlton Brinsfield testified for the defense, explaining that he had examined Mrs. Henderson several weeks ago, and that hospital records showed she had been treated in 1953 for the same conditions as she claimed to have suffered since drinking the soft drink.

Judge Henderson directed a few remarks to the Beall High class after excusing the jurors.

Two Injured In Auto Accident

Two men were admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital this morning after the car in which they were riding hit the north side of the Western Maryland Railway underpass on Route 36 at Homewood Addition.

They were Melty James Allen, 13 Milton Place, who suffered a fractured left leg and lacerations of the left side of his face.

The driver, Lester Garlick, 318 Columbia Street, received a broken rib and severe lacerations of the left arm.

Trooper Robert Wolford, who investigated, said Garlick apparently went asleep before hitting the concrete wall.

Building Addition

Wallace G. Ullery, 1006 Kent Avenue, Johnson Heights Addition, has obtained a permit from the building engineer to construct a one-story addition to his dwelling. Cost is estimated at $4,000.

Cheek Grass Fire

South End firemen yesterday evening checked a grass fire at 12 East Oldtown Road. Firemen were at the scene approximately one-half hour.

Uniontown To Seek U.S. Fund For Route 40

Uniontown officials of the Fayette County Development Council will go to Washington "within the month" to urge the federal Bureau of Public Roads to include U. S. Route 40 in the interstate highway system.

The council's decision to send a delegation to the capital came after it was advised by Secretary Joseph J. Lawler of the Pennsylvania Highways Department that the decision on the Route 40 question rests with the federal bureau.

The section of Route 40 in question runs 138 miles between Hancock and Washington, Pa. It roughly parallels to the south the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Delegation Named

The delegation which will attempt to persuade the Bureau of Public Roads to include this segment in the interstate system will be composed of Edward L. Sittler, council president; Stewart Neel, executive vice president; and I. N. Hagan, president of the council's Highway Development Committee.

It will be the second visit to Washington by the Fayette-County group. Back in January, Lawler had told the council essentially the same thing as he did yesterday, and a delegation contacted the bureau at that time.

Maryland highway officials are supporting the U. S. 40 move and local groups have voiced strong support and urged its inclusion in the federal system.

At the meeting with Lawler in Harrisburg council members were told:

"If the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads wants to increase Pennsylvania's mileage to include this highway, then, of course, we will gladly recommend it. It's up to the bureau."

Some Favor Turnpike

Lawler explained that there is a reluctance in some Pennsylvania quarters to make U. S. 40 an interstate route — and so qualify it for 90 per cent federal aid — because of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

The entire length of the Turnpike has been assigned to the federal interstate system.

"There seems to be some thinking that U. S. 40 should be just an access road because it runs east and west just as the turnpike does," he said. "The other side says turnpike traffic is getting heavier and heavier and that U. S. 40 would be a good way to relieve turnpike congestion."

Lawler said he advised the delegation to contact U. S. Bureau of Public Roads at Washington to make its views known there.

Meanwhile, State Senator Charles M. See (R-Allegany) has suggested that the Maryland State Roads Commission renew its efforts to have Route 40 included.

He noted, in a letter to SRC chairman, Robert O. Bonnell, that the Fayette County group had met with Pennsylvania officials, and suggested that the two states, working together, might be able to bring about satisfactory results.

Five Injured In Area Crash

Five persons were injured and two automobiles were demolished in an accident Sunday on U. S. Route 50, eight miles west of Winchester.

Injured in the crash were Mrs. Bamba Brill, Washington, 53, possible fractured ribs; Mrs. Minnie Kesner, 69, Romney, fractures of both legs; Arlie Kesner, 49, Romney, lacerations of the scalp and nose; John Kesner, 56, Romney, chest injuries, and Paul Kesner, 16, Romney, laceration of the chin.

State Police said the accident occurred as Mrs. Brill was driving east on the highway and collided with Arlie Kesner's vehicle which was moving west.

EASTER SEAL LUCKY BUCKS NEEDED NOW

The next 93 bucks mailed for Easter Seals will be lucky for crippled children in Allegany County because that's the number of dollars needed to make the 1957 seal campaign total of $8,200.

Over 23,000 residents of Allegany County received Easter Seals in the mail a month ago, and a check yesterday showed $8,203 had been received in returns at headquarters.

Much more than $8,200 is needed, however, to finance treatment of crippled children in this section, and it is hoped that at least $10,000 will be received this year.

Don't hold back if you have not yet mailed your money for the seals. It's possible that the buck you haven't returned is the dollar that will be needed to reach this year's goal.

Playground Given Annual Facelifting In Mt. City

FROSTBURG—The East End playground has been undergoing its annual facelifting with the entire job of painting, installing and repairing facilities being done by volunteer laborers under the direction of Donald Miller, president of the East End Playground Association.

Miss Suzanne Harrison, 158 Bowers Street, a graduate of Beall High School and a freshman at Frostburg State Teachers College, has been appointed as supervisor of the summer season.

Miller announced that a meeting of the association has been planned for May 9 at 7:30 p. m. at the playground. In case of inclement weather the meeting will be held at his home.

Final plans for the opening of the playground will be made and a review of the proposed activities made with the new supervisor. Miller also announced that three new swings of the latest type will be added to the present equipment and that the Phillips and Kopper Garage recently donated a sound projector to the association for use during the summers.

Old newspapers make excellent windshield wipers in rainy weather. Newsprint contains tannic acid, an excellent cleanser when mixed with a little water.

We Service What We Sell

The City of Frostburg, in order to encourage shoppers, will give free parking Friday and Saturday, according to G. Franklin Martens, police commissioner.

Hohing stated that all kinds of merchandise ranging from soft goods, clothing, hardware, jewelry, home decorations, appliances and a host of other household articles, will be offered to customers. Many stores are giving up to 40 per cent reductions on sales items.

"Frostburg Sales Days," said Hohing, have become known for miles around as the time for exceptional bargains in Frostburg. In addition to the "free parking" Friday and Saturday on the main street, Broadway, Water and Ormond, two "free" city parking lots are available for motorists, both within one block of the shopping district. One is located at the rear of the Fidelity Bank on Mechanic Street and the other at the rear of the Peoples Transit Carage off Water Street.

Homemakers Hear Talk On Civil Defense

FROSTBURG—William Barger, director of Civil Defense for Allegany County, spoke at a recent meeting of the Frostburg Homemakers Club at State Teachers College.

Barger urged each homemaker to be prepared to protect her family in case of an attack. He said that each household should have a seven-day supply of food on hand and a well-equipped first aid kit with the homemaker trained to use it.

He also asked that homemakers avail themselves of opportunities of taking training courses being offered for their own information, and also to be able to help in mass feeding and giving shelter in case of an attack. Barger further stated that each person should learn anything that he can about Civil Defense.

Mrs. Perry Myers and Mrs. Chester Stewart arranged table settings for the major holidays of the year as well as a showing table and a picnic table showing how to use china, silver and decorations in order to "set a pretty table" for these occasions.

Mrs. Marion Stinson, president of the club, announced that the county pageant will be held Monday evening at West Side School, Cumberland with each homemaker club participating. She also announced that a film on color lighting in the home will be shown at the meeting May 28.

The committee for this meeting includes Mrs. Grace Mont, chairman, Mrs. Laverne Kerr, Mrs. Alberta Miller, Mrs. Alice Miller, Mrs. Flo Logsdon and Mrs. Mary Krumpach.

Area Students Will Graduate

SHEPHERDSTOWN, W. Va.—Among candidates for graduation at Shepherd College here June 3 are the following:

Dorothy Rebecca Bagg, Kessell; Gladys Teresa Calentine, Willard Maxwell Kitzmiller, both of Keyser; Dorothy Lee Leatherman, Moorefield and Dolores Ann Worling, Aurora, Bachelor of Arts degrees in elementary education.

Phillip C. Adams, Romney; Doyle W. Bolyard and Larry Glenn Bolyard, both of Aurora; Gary Laign Kerns, Berkeley Springs; Theodore LaMar Sager, Moorefield, and Harold William Turner, Ridgeley, Bachelor of Arts in secondary education.

Stanley Price Hawse Jr. and Ronald Morway Neff, both of Moorefield; Harold W. Turner, Ridgeley and Kyle W. Tutwiler, Augusta, Bachelor of Science degrees.

Those who graduated on January 28, 1957, and will receive diplomas include: Daniel Brady Ellifritz Jr., Keyser, and Robert Ware Maphis, Romney, Bachelor of Arts degree—Liberal Arts; Daniel Brady Ellifritz Jr., Keyser, Bachelor of Arts degree—elementary education.

A. G. Slonaker, registrar, stressed the fact that these students are candidates for graduation in June, subject to faculty approval and satisfactory completion of courses now in progress.

Frostburg Rotarians Conduct Weekly Meet

FROSTBURG—A. Reford Aldridge, past president of the Frostburg Rotary Club spoke at the weekly dinner meeting of the club in the Sunday School room of Zion Evangelical and Reformed Church Monday evening.

Aldridge's talk was about the activities of the local club in the four avenues of service: Club, community, vocational and international. Following his address he called upon a number of past presidents of the club to voice their opinions on the activities programs and projects of the group. Alfred Benna, principal of Mt. Savage High School, was a visitor.

PTA Board To Meet

KEYSER — The Keyser Parent-Teacher Association executive board meeting will be held Friday at 7:30 p. m. in the office of Parker C. Black, principal.

All officers, newly elected, officers, and committee chairmen are expected to be present.

Canning Firm Plant Will Open For Tomato Crop

PETERSBURG — Announcement has been made by William Toohy, local manager of the Petersburg Canning Company, that present plans call for the opening of the local plant for the packing of tomatoes about the last week in July or the first week in August. This is the largest single employer of labor in the area during the time of its operation.

Toohy also noted that acreage commitments for the current year were less than half of those needed to keep the plant in complete operation during the canning season. He stated that only 145 acres have been promised and that 300 are actually needed in order to prevent hauling tomatoes from long distances as was done last year.

The breakdown as to counties and the acreage promised is as follows: Grant, 46 acres; Hardy, 83 acres; Pendleton, 12 and Mineral, four. Efforts are still being made to sign up prospective growers in order to get in the present operations. Setting of plants will begin May 10 and are expected to last about 10 days. Soil samples are now being taken from the acreage already promised and these samples are being sent to West Virginia University in order to determine the type and amount of fertilizer needed to assure peak production.

Plant officials have been trying to get growers to plant acreage and to operate it in connection with the growing of broilers in order to bolster farm income. The broiler market has been in a depressed condition and it was thought that by growing tomatoes along with the poultry, local farm income would be bolstered. They confessed disappointment in the result of the effort.

When operations begin, one shift will start and a short time later, if production warrants, other shifts will be added working around the clock. The plant employs more than 200 persons, mostly women, when it is operating at full capacity.

Area Lawyer Opens Office

WESTERNPORT — Jack I. Mullen of Westernport, who was recently released from active duty in the U. S. Navy, plans to practice law here.

He has a temporary office at his home on Allegany Street until permanent office facilities are obtained. A 1947 graduate of Bruce High School, Mullen holds an AB degree in liberal arts and an LL.B. degree from the University of Maryland Law School where he was graduated with honors in 1953.

In November of that year he entered the Navy and was assigned to Officer Candidate School at Newport, R. I., where he was commissioned as an ensign in April, 1954.

After receiving his commission he was assigned to the USS Nevada as legal officer and spent eight months in Mediterranean and European waters.

Following his tour on the Nevada he was assigned to the School of Naval Justice in Providence, R. I., as instructor in military law and head of the evidence department.

He is certified as trial and defense counsel by the General Courts Martial of the United States. He has been admitted to practice before the United States Court of Military Appeals, Allegany County Circuit Court, the Maryland Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court.

A son of Mrs. Hilda Mullen and the late Jack Mullen, he and his wife, the former Jean Orr of Lonaconing, will reside with his mother on Allegany Street.

Mayor Shear Files For Town Election

ROMNEY — Mayor David Shear is the first candidate to file for office in the town election next month. He has served two terms as mayor.

The terms of councilmen Vernon Durst, Arno Shingleton and Mrs. Amy Judy expire this year, officers, and committee chairmen are expected to be present.

Band Concert Slated Friday At Hyndman

HYNDMAN — The Hyndman-Londonderry Joint High School band will present its seventh annual spring concert Friday at 8:15 p. m. in the Hyndman High School auditorium.

The program will feature two solos, two suites for band, an overture, several marches and incidental music. Twiflers will be featured in a routine by Lynne Beal, drum major. The band is under the direction of Arch J. Stewart.

Personnel of the band follows: Lynne Beal, William A. Jordan Jr., Kenneth P. Shaffer, J. R. Shroyer, Judy Stuby, Masilda Willison, John V. Baker, Linda K. Bruner, William Christner, Louise Cook, Carol Crabtree, Maynard Diehl, Wayne Emerick, Gary L. Lehman, Donna L. Logsdon, Boyd Mazer, Leah N. Mowry, Ronald Ranker, Lana Ringer, Charles T. Piedmont Pool Manager Named

PIEDMONT — Francis Albanese, of 107 Davis Street, Keyser, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Domenick T. Albanese, Second Street, Piedmont, was appointed by the Piedmont Council as manager and life guard of the Piedmont Municipal Swimming Pool this summer at a monthly salary of $250.

Albanese served four years in the U. S. Navy, is a graduate of Piedmont High School and a sophomore at Potomac State College, Keyser, majoring in physical education and recreation. He is married and has one son.

Edward Seaman, a member of the Piedmont High School faculty, who served as manager of the pool for three years, was not an applicant. He expects to take a position at the Luke Mill of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company during the summer months. Albanese was the only applicant.

John Lannon, East Harrison Street, and Joseph Niland were appointed life guards at $100 a month. Lannon has a Red Cross certificate for life guard. He is a junior at St. Peter's High School, Westernport.

Niland is a junior at Piedmont High School.

Miss Andrea Grady, East Hampshire Street and Linda Kay Cook, Piedmont High School students, were appointed ticket sellers at a $75 monthly salary.

Miss Anne Drane, East Hampshire Street and Betty Shultz, Harrison Street, students of Piedmont High School, are basket attendants. Richard High, Erin Street, and James Skidmore, West Fairview Street, are also basket attendants. High is a Piedmont High School student and Skidmore attends St. Peter's High School, Westernport. They will receive $50 a month.

All of the appointees, except the manager, will alternate work two weeks a month.

United Fund Appeal Outlined At Meeting

WESTERNPORT — Thomas Miller, county United Fund director, conducted a round table discussion on the program at the Union Hall recently.

Miller pointed out the advantages of a one-drive campaign instead of the individual drives as has been the custom for many years. The group endorsed the new plan.

Fails To Meet Quota

ROMNEY — Hampshire County again failed to meet its quota of 125 pints of blood when the bloodmobile visited here. Of the 69 people who reported, 58 pints were collected.

Piedmont Receives $477 From W. Va Liquor Control Commission

PIEDMONT — Mayor Rodney Baker announced at a council meeting Monday evening that the town had received a check for $477.13 from the West Virginia Liquor Control Commission as its share from the liquor tax for the first three months of 1957.

Parking meters and parking violations netted the town $251 the past two weeks, Ormond Ledlow, clerk, revealed.

Mayor Baker also announced that the town received a check for $14,610 through its attorney, Donald C. Holt, from Abe Feldstein of Cumberland, completing the sale for the Piedmont town building.

It was ordered that Ledlow deposit the amount received in the First National Bank in the Town Hall Building Fund. It also was a great many years for the slaying of road shows and later as a movie house. Movie presentations have been discontinued for some time.

Last fall the town clerk's office was moved to the old Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad Station in the rear of Second Street. The town purchased the property from the Western Maryland Railway Company which acquired it from the former company. Persons arrested by Piedmont police officers are removed to the Keyser jail.

Feldstein has not revealed his plans for what use he will make of the building of the former Steam Laundry which he has also purchased.

Brief Mention
Ormond Ledlow, town clerk who was a medical patient at Potomac Valley Hospital, Keyser, has resumed his duties.

Robinson Hoping To 'Uncap' Fullmer Tonight

But Middle Champ 9-5 Favorite In Chicago Tiff

By PATRICK JOYCE
CHICAGO — (INS) — Sugar Ray Robinson, three times winner of the middleweight championship, tries again for title tonight in a precedent-shattering effort which probably ranks as the most important fight of his brilliant boxing career.

Robinson's opponent in the 15-round bout at Chicago Stadium is rugged, 25-year-old Gene Fullmer, the West Jordan, Utah, champion who outmailed the 36-year-old Sugar Ray last Jan. 2 in New York.

Fullmer, on his youth and previous victory over Robinson, has been a betting favorite since the men were signed by the International Boxing Club, although odds that once were as long as 15 to 5 on the Utah champion now have dwindled to 9 to 5.

On National TV
The bout is being nationally televised by the American Broadcasting Company, with the Chicago area blacked out.

A crowd of at least 12,000 with a $160,000 gate has been predicted by IBC president James D. Norris.

Fight observers are agreed that it is impossible to exaggerate the importance of this bout for Robinson.

Often termed "the last of the great champions," Sugar Ray, if he wins, can add another memorable triumph to a career that has covered close to 20 years.

If he loses, it probably will mark the end of the trail for the slim, graceful ring master whose nimble feet and flashing fists have delighted fans on two continents for a generation.

Edge In Experience
Robinson has a vast edge on Fullmer in experience. The lean New Yorker has engaged in 129 bouts, winning 90 by knockouts and losing only five contests.

In contrast, Fullmer has fought 39 times as a pro, winning 21 bouts via the knockout route and losing only three decisions.

Most boxing fans concede Robinson cleverness, superior punch and expert ring knowledge—everything but youth and courage over the hooking, powerfully built Fullmer.

In their first bout, Sugar Ray, obviously worried that his legs might not hold up for 15 rounds, fought cautiously against a crouching Fullmer who made a shield of his gloves and elbows to block his opponent's long-range blows.

Most of the action was at close range, and neither man seriously punished the other.

Sugar In Shape
Robinson's close advisers say that he is in much better condition for this bout which might mean much more action if Sugar Ray opens up and can continue his once formidable attack.

The catch for Robinson is the extent of his stamina which the years have a habit of draining away from even the greatest of athletes.

Each fighter will receive 30 percent of the gate and will share on the same percentage basis in the TV-radio receipts.

Robinson, who won the world welterweight title in 1946, first captured the middleweight crown in 1951 when he stopped Jake La Motta in the same stadium ring where he fights tonight.

That same year, he lost it to Randy Turpin of England, only to regain it two months later by knocking out Turpin.

Sugar Ray retired temporarily following his futile bid for the light-heavyweight title against Joey Maxim in 1952.

Robinson returned to the ring late in 1954 and regained the middleweight championship by knocking out Bobo Olson in 1955.

INS Editor Sees 'Sugar' Atoning Loss

By JOHN BARRINGTON
INS Sports Editor

CHICAGO — (INS) — During all these weeks of preparation, the odds have been pegged at 15 to 5 or thereabouts on Gene Fullmer to retain the middleweight championship tonight in his return bout with Sugar Ray Robinson.

Enough Robinson money has showed up in the past few days to reduce the spread to a more respectable 2 to 1, but it still seems an overlay for a fight in which Sugar Ray is involved.

Despite his 37 birthdays (come next Friday) and his lackluster showing in the previous bout, I believe Robinson will win back the title from the hardy young Mormon from West Jordan, Utah.

Fit After Fight
Although Fullmer won clearly and unanimously in that first fight last January at Madison Square Garden, it was close enough that a little more sustained effort on Robinson's part could have reversed it.

The memory of Sugar's dressing room persists, with the aging gladiator looking remarkably fresh and fit for a man who had just gone 15 rounds and seemingly anything but dependent over the fact that he had just lost his title.

Robinson, of course, is a consummate actor, and just then he was engrossed in the role of graceful loser, generously rejecting the bleats of his managerial staff that he had been robbed by poor refereeing.

Never Lost Second Time
But he managed to convey the cat-that-ate-the-canary attitude of a man who, perhaps, has made an important discovery, too late to help in this fight but something to be exploited in the next one. In any case, this was one whose bearing suggested that he expected his exile from the throneroom to be no more than a temporary inconvenience.

Robinson has a history of never losing a second time to any of the select group of fighters who have beaten him. For a long time, a lost decision to Jake La Motta was the only blot on his record, but he avenged that three times over, ultimately giving Jake a terrible going over in winning the middleweight crown from him.

He made the mistake of taking Randy Turpin too lightly when he interrupted a triumphal European tour to pick up what looked like some easy money. He corrected that error of judgment two months later in one of his most exciting fights.

Two other conquerors, Joey Maxim and Ralph (Tiger) Jones, still are 1-0 against him because there have been no return bouts, but in each case there were extenuating circumstances. Maxim won when Robinson, comfortably ahead on points, collapsed in the heat. He fought Jones at the outset of his comeback after a 20-month song-and-dance fling and was not ready for a protagonist of the Tiger's advanced skill.

All this is history, along with 148 other pro fights and some rather high-on-the-hog living. It does not follow that he can lick Fullmer this second time around, but I think he can.

Women's Shuffle Dinner Set Tonight

The annual dinner and dance of the Allegany County Women's Shuffleboard League will be tonight at the City Shrine Club, South Centre Street.

William V. Keegan, city police and fire commissioner, will be toastmaster with the dinner to start at 7 o'clock. Happy Laughton's orchestra will play for the dance which will get underway at 9 o'clock.

Each year the winner of the $100,000 Preakness is draped with yellow daisies. The centers are dyed black with shoe polish to simulate black-eyed susans, Maryland's official flower.

Need For Athletics Stressed By Hahn In Talk At Ridgeley

High School athletics were never more important than they are today.

This is the opinion of Bill Hahn, football and track coach at Fort Hill, who made known his feelings as principal speaker at the all-sports dinner for Ridgeley High athletes last night in the school cafeteria.

"Every boy participating in sports should try to develop his mind and body through this larger school where he would learn," Hahn declared. "But more important is the self discipline boys learn through athletics. And, believe me, this is mighty important in these days of youth problems."

Hahn, who coached at Ridgeley before going to Fort Hill where his teams have attained phenomenal success, said he regarded the job at the West Virginia Class B school as a stepping stone. And he added that he has never coached anywhere where the boys had a better attitude to win. "My wife and I will always have a warm spot for Ridgeley," he added.

Won 17 Games In '42
Hahn began his coaching career at Piedmont High, going from there to Spencer and then to Ridgeley. In 1942 Bill's basketball Blackhaws won 17 games and lost four during the regular season for what was at that time the best record in the history of the school. His football team of 1941 won six of eight games and capped the Mineral County championship.

The Fort Hill mentor, who has a 12-year football record at the local school of 90 victories, only 11 defeats and six ties, also paid tribute to Melvin Heiskell, principal, whose long-time principal, "Mr. Heiskell is the only person still on the Ridgeley faculty who was here when I came to this school," Hahn asserted.

Pointing out the many jobs required of a principal in a small school, Hahn said that Heiskell, a highly capable administrator, chose to remain at Ridgeley even though his burden would have been lighter in a larger school where he would have had more people to share the load. "The community should be proud to have a man like Mr. Heiskell for its high school principal," Hahn added.

Tom O'Connor, completing his first year as head football, basketball and track coach at Ridgeley, lauded the spirit of his players and the manner in which they conducted themselves to earn the sportsmanship award. He also introduced all of his seniors and complimented the cheerleaders for their work.

Heiskell, in his address of welcome, said dinners such as the one last night would not be possible without the help of so many hard-working, behind-the-scenes persons who are interested in school activities. He praised the work of the PTA and Boosters Club, co-sponsors of the dinner, and borrowed the words of the immortal Churchill to emphasize his point. "Never did so many people owe so much to so few."

Others making short talks were Wayne Boor, assistant coach at Fort Hill, and Clifton Van Roby, veteran local basketball referee. J. Suter Kegg was toastmaster.

Zimmer Has Finest Day As Dodger

By International News Service
Don Zimmer is one ballplayer who literally laughs at death. The 26-year-old Brooklyn Dodger infielder twice has been nearly killed by pitched balls and another time his wrist was broken when he threw up his arm to protect his head.

The first time he was beamed, Zimmer suffered a fractured skull and temporarily lost his speech. That was in 1953. Last year, he was almost blinded.

But he refuses to give up baseball and at last the breaks seem to be coming his way. When Pee-wee Reese turned up a little lame before the season opener, the 5-foot-9, 165-pound pepper-pot was ready to step in at shortstop.

Last night, he had one of his finest evenings in the major leagues. He collected five hits in six trips to the plate. The first four safeties were singles and then, in the tenth inning, he homered to give the Dodgers a 10-6-9 win over the Chicago Cubs.

Zimmer was born in Cincinnati and started his pro career in 1949. He made his big leagues in 1954, but this may be his first year to play anywhere near the full schedule.

Zimmer, his pretty wife, Jean, and their two children, Tommy and Donna, don't do too much outward worrying about Don's many injuries. They try to laugh about it and the children have gotten to the point where they sometimes joke about playing a game called, "Hit in the Head."

Field Of Nine May Produce Record Fast Derby Saturday

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (AP) — A swiftly run Kentucky Derby, possibly fast enough for a record, was predicted today by the trainers as a field of nine shaped for Saturday's running of the $125,000 added turf classic 3-year olds at Churchill Downs.

Two world records and 12 other track standards have been either broken or equalled this year by 4:50 p. m. EST Saturday. The race will be televised from 4:15 to 4:45 p. m. by the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Conditions of the favored Calumet Farm entry of Gen. Duke and Iron Liege and the second choice Bold Ruler from the Wheatley Stable were hesitant in voicing an opinion on how fast the race will be run.

Jones said if the injury is only a separation or a bruise, the horse likely will be in the starting lineup. But, if the X-rays indicate a fracture he will not start, Jones said.

seven of the nine horses, whose names will be dropped into the entry box tomorrow morning. Not even the oldest horseman could recall when this 1 1/4-mile run over the historic Downs ever attracted such a high class field of evenly-matched thoroughbreds as will spring from the starting gate when the word "go" is given at

"Tomorrow -- This could be You!"

WVU To Honor Smith

Thirty-four years ago a man from Maine stopped in Morgantown, W. Va., to coach the West Virginia University track squad, before seeking a permanent position for the fall. He stayed on to become a legendary Art Smith, whose story of all but a smattering of meets is the story of track at WVU.

"I'd never heard of the place before," Smith has been quoted as saying, "except that some guy was famous for stopping a javelin and walking to the infirmary with it stuck in his neck." He referred to his longtime boss, Harry A. Stansbury, the athletic director.

"However, I had known Dr. Clarence 'Fats' Spears from Dartmouth, and he was then football coach at West Virginia and recommended me to handle track. In the fall I was appointed trainer of the football team in addition to track coach."

The sally old coach has lost none of his Down East accent after spending nearly half his life in the West Virginia hills. As he lunges around a curve inside the track, exhorting his runners, "You're walking!" is a cry familiar to all.

Once a member of the squad said he had an athlete's foot infection. "Humph! I didn't know we had any athletes around here," was the coach's reply.

In part because he has taken so little time for sentiment—but mainly in tribute to the 31 years' service which he has given the University and the indelible impression he has made on them—former athletes are giving him a testimonial on Friday.

They are coming from all over: Fred A. Schlens, '23, of Ormond Beach, Fla., will be there. So will Col. Charles S. Hoult, '30, stationed at Fort Polk, La.; Dr. James W. Merricks, '30, Chicago, Ill., and George "Eck" Allen, '35, Larchmont, N. Y.

A couple of surprises are in store, but one of the requisites Smith placed to assure his own attendance was that Stansbury must make one of his rare speaking appearances. Besides the fact that Charles E. Hodges, '13, of Charleston, is to be master of ceremonies, the banquet program will be largely "improvisant."

Smith is a native of Buffalo, N. Y., and a graduate of the University of Buffalo, 1912. He coached track and cross-country at the University of Maine, Michigan State and Iowa State as well as U. S. Olympic squads at Sweden in 1914 and Paris in 1920.

He was honored for his long service by the ICA (Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America) in New York in 1952, by the University of Maine at a 40th anniversary reunion of that institution's only national championship team—the 1915 cross-country squad which he coached, and last year by the West Virginia Sports Writers Association at its Victory Awards Dinner.

Antonelli Continues To Haunt Milwaukee Braves

Old Mates Blanked By Giant Lefty In 4-0 Game

By FRED DE LUCA
NEW YORK (INS)—The Milwaukee Braves, who have had everything but a pennant, must be wondering today how many flags they threw away back on February 1, 1954.

That's the day the Braves sent Johnny Antonelli along with a few players and a big bundle of cash to the New York Giants in order to get Bobby Thomson.

In the three years since the deal, the young southpaw has had 109 29-game seasons, won a total of 57 games and pitched the Giants to a pennant and a World Series sweep.

To make matters a little worse, in Milwaukee, Antonelli stood the Braves on their ears last night by pitching and halting the Giants to a 4-0 win that started Fred Haney's squall off on the wrong foot on their Eastern invasion.

18th Shutout
In fashioning his 18th lifetime shutout, Antonelli scattered seven hits and struck out nine Braves. Dusty Rhodes' two-run homer off Bob Buhl gave Antonelli all the runs he needed to lift his record to a 2-and-2 but the lefty also cracked a two-run homer after Ray Crone replaced Buhl.

Antonelli was the first pitcher this season to go the distance against the Braves, who now are 9-and-2 and lead crushing Brooklyn by one game.

The Dodgers defeated the Cubs, 10 to 9, on Don Zimmer's tenth-inning homer which was the roundtripper of the game. Stan Musial continued his torrid batting by belting a homer in the 13th that gave the St. Louis Cards a 6-to-5 win over Pittsburgh. Cincinnati also got off to a good start on their road trip by beating Philadelphia, 6 to 3, as Brooks Lawrence went the route.

Bolling Beats Yankees
In the American League, Billy Pierce pitched the Chicago White Sox to a 6-to-1 win over Baltimore, while the New York Yankees were losing to Detroit, 2 to 1, in ten innings on Frank Bolling's homer. The White Sox league lead stayed at one game when the Boston Red Sox beat Kansas City, 3 to 1, in a night game. Bob Lemon won his first of the year as Cleveland whipped Washington, 5 to 1.

Zimmer had singled four times and struck out once before he homered off Dave Hillman. Roy Campanella homered twice for the Dodgers, while Gil Hodges and Sandy Amoros had one homer each. The Amoros blast was a score-tying pinch wallop in the ninth off Vito Valentinetti.

All the Cubs runs came on homers. Gene Baker connected with one on, Bob Lemon hit his first major league roundtripper with two on and Walt Moryn slammed a bases-loaded drive. Don Bennett won in relief.

Musial Ruins Pirates
The Pirates, with the aid of two Cardinal errors, scored five times in the ninth to tie St. Louis. But Musial's drive off Erroy Faye ruined the comeback. Earlier the man collected his 2,800th big league hit. Larry Jackson won the relief victory.

Del Ennis and Wally Moon also homered for the Redbirds. Moon's blast over the rightfield roof had been duplicated previously in league play only by Babe Ruth.

SATISFIED SMILE—Pitcher Bob Lemon poses happily in the Cleveland Indians' dressing room after scoring his first victory of the season last night at the expense of the Senators. He gave up only two hits in 8½ innings and hit a third-inning homer that was the 37th of his career. He needs one more homer to tie Wes Ferrell who holds the major league record of 38 for homers by pitchers. (AP Photos)

Extra-Inning Thrillers Keep Up In County Play

The script writer is working "overtime" in the torrid Allegheny County Baseball League as once again three of the four scheduled games in the loop were forced into extra innings yesterday before a winner could be decided.

The last time the circuit had a full slate of contests, three games and Ray Winters in the eighth set up the winning run by Valley. Cliff Preston's hot smash through short scored both. As it turned out the two tallies were needed as the Aggies came up with a run in the home eighth.

"Butch" Young won the game in relief of Grover Fazenbaker while Frank Smith was the loser. Six Flintstone errors kept "Smitty" in hot water throughout the game. John Johnson of the winners and Randall Mann and Wayne Boggs of Flintstone all had two hits apiece.

A triple to right-center scored Jim Skidmore with two away in the bottom of the seventh and Beall got a 3-2 win over Mt. Savage. Skidmore had singled just prior to Wilson's smash.

Jim Mallow started on the hill for the Mounties but was relieved by winning pitcher Marshall Winters in the sixth. John Anderson and "Ace" Fatkin shared four of the eight hits yielded by Mt. Savage's George Bishields who went the distance for the Indians.

Senators Sell Olson To Bosox

WASHINGTON (AP)—Baseball's latest trade finds outfielder Karl Olson going from Washington to Detroit and infielder Jack Phillips heading back to the minors, from Detroit to San Francisco.

The Boston Red Sox served as go-between in the deal closed yesterday. This was the sequence: Washington sold Olson to Boston, from which he was acquired in 1955, for a reported $10,000. The Red Sox immediately shuffled him to Detroit. The Tigers ordered Phillips, 35-year-old first baseman, to San Francisco—a Red Sox farm.

Boston presumably got into the transaction in order to negotiate a first baseman for the Pacific Coast League. It was the second swap in two days between the Senators and Red Sox. On Monday, Washington exchanged pitchers Dean Stone and Bob Chakales for Boston outfielder Pave Thronberry, shortstop Milt Bolling and pitcher Russ Kemmerer.

Franklin Sweeps Monterey Nine

Franklin High tallied in every inning but one of a twinbill against Monterey (Va.) High yesterday and swept the Virginians, 20-1 and 10-8, at Franklin.

Coach Gus Smith's nine slugged out 18 hits in the seven-inning opener. Bill Showalter paced the attack with three singles, double and two-run homer while Joe Rudy buried the route for the decision.

The Panthers rallied in the abbreviated, five-inning nightcap for the triumph. Trailing, 8-4, going into the fourth, the Panthers chased across six tallies with Dove's double scoring the tying run and Lough's two-bagger producing the go-ahead run.

Stan Dahmer's double and single led the winners at the plate while Keister got the victory, although touched for 10 bingles.

yesterday when Clifford Lusk's Louisville-owned Federal Hill, whipped Gen. Duke by 2½ lengths in the Derby Trial with a 1:36 1-5 clocking for one mile.

The trial served to eliminate only Mrs. Ada L. Rice's Man Up Stairs as W. S. Miller's Better U ran third with Mrs. Rice's Indian Creek fourth and Iron Liege fifth in the six-horse field.

The stock of Federal Hill, rated a fast horse with doubtful staying ability, was boosted as he ran what trainer Milt Reiser called "his best race."

Although Jockey Willie Hartack whipped Gen. Duke through the stretch in a tuffie effort to close ground and Iron Liege just refused to run his usual good race, the Calumet pair remained the 8-5 choice to win the Derby. With nine starters America's premier race will gross $151,000 with a net of $107,700 going to the winner.

Bold Ruler, with Eddie Arcaro seeking his sixth Derby riding triumph, was the second choice at 2-1. Travis Kerr's Round Table, for whom the Oklahoma oilman is said to have paid $175,000, was third at 9-2 followed by Ralph Lowe's Texas-owned Gallant Man at 6-1 and Federal Hill at 12-1.

The others, including T. A. Grissom's Shan Pac of Detroit, were lightly regarded.

FINAL CITY LEAGUE PLANS TO BE MADE

Final plans for the City Softball League will be made tomorrow, 7:30 p. m., at a meeting in the City Rec Department office. Officers will be elected and the by-laws and constitution will be discussed by team representatives.

Five teams, including two holdovers from last summer, are definitely to participate with the possibility of the Knights of Columbus also fielding a club. Johnson's Grocers and Old Germans return while Old Exports, Blue Ribbon Bakery and the Potomac Valley champs of the County League make up the present circuit.

A tentative starting date has been set for Monday, May 20th.

William & Mary Names Coaches

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP)—Two eager young men who made their mark as successful high school coaches have been handed the task of rebuilding William & Mary's fortunes in football and basketball.

Milton Drewer, 34, was named by the college last night as its new athletic director and head football coach, succeeding Jack Freeman, who resigned March 30.

Bill Chambers, 26, was chosen as head basketball coach to succeed the recently demoted Boyd Baird.

Between them, Drewer and Chambers have only one year of collegiate coaching to their credit. Both gained the nod from William & Mary on the basis of outstanding records while coaching at high schools.

Fire Losses In Cresaptown Total $13,975

Twenty-one calls were answered by the Cresaptown Volunteer Fire Company during the fiscal year that ended yesterday, according to the report of Fire Chief Arthur Winters.

Damage from the blazes within the territory protected by the company was estimated at $13,975.

Chief Winters said the number of calls was down but losses were up from the year before.

During the 1956 fiscal year, the company responded to 41 calls but fire losses were kept to the $2,355 mark.

During the period which began May 1, 1956, the Cresaptown company responded to five home fires which resulted in losses of $3,800.

The company was called out by two automobile fires which resulted in $25 damage, one farm building with a loss of $10,000, one farm tractor fire resulting in $150 damage, one electric motor blaze and eight grass and brush fires.

Cresaptown firemen answered one mutual aid call last fall when fire razed glass plants in LaVale.

Firemen also turned out to join a search party for two small children.

Chief Winters said calls from brush and grass fires have been dropping steadily as a result of the work of the Forestry Department.

During the past year, 17 of the 56 active members of the department completed fire training courses conducted by the University of Maryland.

The company, which operates two pumpers and a jeep and trailer, added two fog nozzles and a hydrant adapter during the year and put a two-way radio on its first line pumper.

National Coin Week Observed

A request for the proclamation of the week of May 6 as National Coin Week was referred to Gorman E. Gelly, county attorney, by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners.

The request was contained in a letter from A. J. Cioni, a representative of the Western Maryland Coin Club.

Also received yesterday was a letter from the Maryland Coal and Realty Company disclaiming any interest in purchasing the old Mt. Savage School for $600. The county commissioners had the legal requirement of offering the old school first to the Maryland Coal and Realty Company after receiving a bid from D. W. Martin to purchase the old school for $600.

Gelly was instructed to prepare the necessary deed to confer the school property to Mr. Martin.

Former Area Man Killed On Route 40

Leslie S. Whipkey, 31, son of Rev. and Mrs. O. R. Whipkey, formerly of Keyser, was fatally injured last Thursday when the car in which he was riding crashed into a tractor-trailer on U. S. Route 40 about nine miles west of Zanesville, Ohio.

Whipkey had been living in Bethany, W. Va., and only recently had returned from California.

The Ohio Highway Patrol reported the car in which Whipkey was riding was driven by Richard M. Palmer, 25, also of Bethany. Palmer suffered a fractured right leg, internal injuries and multiple cuts of the body. He was admitted to Good Samaritan Hospital, Zanesville.

Whipkey had attended Bethany College for three years and has served in the South Pacific during World War II. Funeral services were held yesterday in Bethany.

Award Night Held By Cubs

"Swiss Family Robinson" was the theme of a recent meeting of Cub Pack 8 at St. Mary's Haven at which a number of advancements were awarded by Glenn Kimberlin, cubmaster of the pack sponsored by the church.

The opening prayer, salute to the Flag and Cub Scout pledge were led by Scout Thomas Simpson. Virgil Bishop, Scout neighborhood commissioner, extended an invitation to the pack to attend the roundtable discussion tomorrow evening at the Kelly-Springfield Fire Company plant.

Michael Burke, Edward Clinebell, Francis Fannon and James Joyce were advanced to the rank of Wolf; Kahn Campbell, Bear, and James Castle and Richard Kimberlin, Lion.

Donald Humberston, who led the singing, was awarded a gold arrow point. Arts and crafts pertaining to the theme were displayed and at the conclusion of the meeting games were played and refreshments were served.

Optimists Plan Sale Of Brooms

Members of the Cumberland and Bedford Road Optimist Clubs will sell brooms tomorrow and Friday starting at 7 p. m. for funds to continue boys work in the community.

The clubs have 100 dozen brooms on hand that were made by the Maryland Workshop for the Blind. This is the first project of the Bedford Road club.

The Cumberland Optimist Club will hear a talk by Eugene Counihan, secretary of the Braddock Junior Optimist Club, today at 6:15 p. m. at its weekly meeting at Central YMCA.

The youth will represent the local club in the speech contest at the district convention.

Applicants Needed By Rec Department

Applications for summer positions with the City Recreation Department are being accepted until May 10, according to C. Eugene Mason, acting recreation director.

Applications may be secured from the Recreation Department office at City Hall.

The positions will include 24 play leaders, three projectionists and about 10 ball field leaders.

Officials said all former summer workers must file applications.

Still needed, officials said, are applicants for Group 2 play leaders, who will serve as assistants or be in charge of smaller playgrounds. High school seniors or high school graduates may qualify. Also needed are ball field leaders, who will essentially be umpires, and one projectionist.
